YOUNG CORBETT WINS

Terry McGovern Knocked Out in Eleventh Round.

BOTH FOUGHT AT TERRIFIC PACE

Young Corbett, Fighting Like a Machine, Never Let Up Until Terry Sank to the Floor a Badly Defeated Man.

Mechanics' Pavilion, San Francisco, April 1.—William Rothwell, better known as "Young Corbett," of Denver, showed decisively last night that his victory over Terry McGovern, of Brooklyn, at Hartford a year ago last Thanksgiving, was no fluke, by defeating McGovern in the 11th round, after a fight in which there was not a second of idleness for either man. In nearly every round Corbett, fighting like a machine, never overlooking an opportunity to send home his blows, had a shade the better of the argument, and when finally in the 11th round he got the Brooklyn boy fairly going he never let up on him until Terry sank to the floor a badly defeated man. Corbett put McGovern down in the first round for a count of seven, and repeated it in the second. There was some question as to whether or not McGovern was down at the count of 10, and for a few minutes it looked as if there would be a free for all fight.

The Fight By Rounds.

Round 1—Both came quickly to the center. Corbett put left to head, Terry bored in with left to ribs and got away from a left jab. McGovern ducked a left, but a moment later got a right on jaw and went for a seven second count. He was evidently very groggy when he got up, and Corbett put three lefts to the nose. McGovern rushed desperately and opened a cut over Corbett's eye. The men fought furiously in the clinch. McGovern put his left Both showed the effects of the furious milling as they took their corners.

Round 2—McGovern rushed like a wild bull. In an instant Corbett's eye was open, but Corbett put right uppercut to Terry's chin. The blows were so fast it was hard to keep track of them. They exchanged rights to jaw. McGovern put left to nose and got right to ear. McGovern blocked a right hook and put left to ear. McGovern slammed right, left and right to stomach, and Corbett was groggy.

Round 3—Corbett put five straight lefts to Terry's mouth. He repeated it and then put a right hard to McGovern's ribs. In the clinch that followed McGovern put right and left to head. Corbett swung right to jaw and upper cut right to stomach and chin. McGovern hooked two rights to stomach and got a right uppercut in on the ribs. Corbett uppercut to the stomach. McGovern swung right to Corbett's eye and nearly put him down. Corbett hooked his left to stomach. The pace was terrific. Corbett, if anything, seemed the stronger.

Round 4—Corbett put two lefts to nose and hooked one to jaw, getting left to jaw and right to stomach as a return. McGovern seemed unable to avoid Corbett's left jabs, but fought carefully nevertheless. Corbett hooked left to eye. McGovern kept coming, but got into a clinch. McGovern got two lefts to jaw and put a hard right over heart and another hard right to jaw.

Round 5—Corbett missed a right hook and got three lefts to the ribs. A clinch and Corbett jabbed three lefts to Terry's mouth. Terry rushed and planted two rights to Corbett's stomach, getting a right hook on the jaw. McGovern swung right on nose, bringing the blood. Corbett put in a hard left to the mouth. He missed the next one, and Terry caught him on the jaw as he turned. McGovern got in three rights to the kidneys and Corbett bent under the punishment. Corbett put a right to the ribs and McGovern put in two rights to stomach. In the rush that followed McGovern put left to the jaw. This was decidedly McGovern's round.

Round 6—Corbett jabbed two lefts to the face and hooked a right to the stomach. McGovern put right to kidneys. Corbett swung right to ear. Corbett swung a hard right to kidneys and got two in the same place. He missed a right swing and got a hard right to stomach in return. McGovern put a left to the throat and got a hard right on ear. A clinch, and McGovern put right to stomach and ribs.

Round 7—Terry hooked a light left to the jaw, but got a hard wallop in mouth and right in ribs. Corbett put left to eye and mouth. Corbett put a hard left in Terry's stomach. Corbett swung right to the jaw and put right uppercut to jaw twice. Terry was by this time in distress. Corbett missed a left twice. McGovern got in a left to jaw. He slipped down and took a count of nine on his knees. The crowd hooted vigorously. Corbett missed a right uppercut, but swung right to back of neck. McGovern put in two hard rights to ribs, ducked a left swing and put in a left to the stomach.

Round 8—They rushed into a clinch. McGovern put in two rights to stomach. They were low, and Corbett's seconds claimed a foul. McGovern hooked right to chest. Corbett hooked a right for jaw, but it was blocked. McGovern's right went to Corbett's kidneys twice. McGovern forced and put left to pit of stomach and right to kidneys. Corbett hooked right to jaw twice. Again he did it. McGovern hooked right to chest and eye and got a right on the jaw.

Round 9—Corbett hooked a right under the heart. It struck Terry and he rushed, but did not land. Corbett put right to ribs, getting McGovern in his own corner, where he punched him with right and left to jaw and stomach and the referee had difficulty in separating them, McGovern holding on. Corbett hooked right to chest, but got two hard rights in the ribs. Corbett uppercut right to ribs and got right to jaw and ribs in exchange. Corbett put in a hard left to the neck.

Round 10—Terry rushed and put in right to jaw and ribs. Corbett uppercut and put right to chin, and put right to jaw and to jaw and ribs. Corbett right to chin and put right to stomach in the clinch. McGovern put left to the stomach and Corbett was nearly gone. Terry rushed and Corbett retaliated rapidly, dancing away from him. In a clinch Terry put right twice to ribs and left to jaw. Another clinch, but no harm done. Corbett put right uppercut to jaw, straightening McGovern up.

Round 11—The men went into a clinch immediately. Corbett missed a left hook and got a hard left on ear. He uppercut heavily with right to stomach. McGovern forced, but Corbett ducked his left and sent in a terrific right to the ribs and a second later a left to the jaw and a left to the eye. Corbett rushed and slipped down, but got up immediately. McGovern put in a right hard to the ribs and both men slipped down. Corbett put a left on McGovern's jaw and Terry was nearly out. Corbett, seeing McGovern's distress, rushed, and getting at McGovern in a neutral corner, swung right, left and right to jaw. McGovern's knees wobbled and his head sank. Corbett, steadying himself, swung his right squarely on McGovern's jaw, and the little Brooklyn fighter went squarely on his back, with his head striking the floor with a thud. He lifted his head at the count of three, turned over and looked at the timekeepers, his eyes glassy and rolling. As the timekeeper counted seven he attempted to get on his feet, but he was unable. Just after the timekeepers called 10, McGovern, dazed and clearly gone, got to his feet. But he was an instant too late.

Referee Graney swung his hands in the air as a signal that the fight was over and that Corbett had retained the championship. In an instant a terrific uproar took place. McGovern's backers, maddened by the sight of their favorite being dragged to his corner, a defeated man, swarmed around and into the ring. They were not quicker than the police, however, who piled them pell-mell through the ropes. For five minutes the uproar continued. Then the lights were turned down and the crowd filed out.

Fatal Accident Near Unionville.

Thursday morning about seven o'clock, George Morrison of Unionville, was walking on the Railroad, and when about half a mile west of Unionville, discovered the dead body of a man apparently about 25 years of age, lying beside the track.

The identity of the man is in doubt, as there was nothing upon his person to give a clue, except a pass book with the name Lloyd Meyers, written upon one of the pages. The supposition is, that it is the body of Lloyd Meyers of Julian, son of Aaron Meyers of that place.

Young Meyers had been working at Retort and was probably on his way home, riding on a Freight train, and had fallen off the car, striking his head and killing him. The body is badly bruised and there are several deep cuts on the head which would be sufficient to cause death.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The spring meeting of the National Council of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew opened at the national headquarters of the Brotherhood, in the Carnegie building, Pittsburg, this morning at 10 o'clock. Reports were read showing the growth and effectiveness of the organization throughout the United States. The financial report shows that the Brotherhood is in splendid condition. The National Council will be entertained at the Union club by the president of the Brotherhood, H. D. W. English, while in the city.

Mr. English, the president of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, is well known to many of our readers, as he visits here frequently at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. M. Furey.

MURDERER UNKNOWN

Verdict in Burdick Mystery Says Slayer's Identity is Not Proved.

SUSPICION AGAINST PENNELL

Justice Murphy Says Facts Known Would Justify Issuance of Warrant Were He Alive—Mr. Hull's Acts Criticised—Mrs. Burdick Censured.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 1.—Judge Murphy handed down his findings in the Burdick inquest yesterday and declared that the identity of the murderer had not been proved.

The statement is an exhaustive review of the evidence brought out during the inquest. Special attention is given to the letters exchanged between Arthur R. Pennell and Mrs. Burdick, particularly the one containing a threat against Burdick's life. Concerning these the judge says: "Altogether these facts would, in my opinion, constitute just ground of suspicion on which a warrant could be issued, were he alive."

Of Mrs. Hull he says: "The action of Mrs. Hull on that morning (the morning after the murder), and her testimony on the stand has caused me much thought and worry. To my mind, they are inconsistent with a perfect want of knowledge as to what had actually occurred. So little apparent feeling for the dead man, such an evident desire to cover up the crime, and no disposition whatever to aid the authorities in apprehending the murderer may be explainable, but has not been explained."

Speaking of Pennell's relations with Mrs. Burdick, Justice Murphy said: "His, of all others, was the motive strong enough to incite a desperate mind already steeped in wrongdoing to so foul and cruel a murder.

"The theory that Burdick had a woman in his den as a guest that night has not been sustained by the evidence. It has not disclosed a single immoral act on his part. It portrays him as a loving father and more than magnanimous and forgiving husband. Mrs. Paine and Miss Hutchinson, whose names have been unfortunately brought into this case, are, so far as this inquest is able to determine, completely exonerated."

After an exhaustive review of all the evidence heard, Justice Murphy says:

"The promises Mrs. Burdick made to her husband were shamelessly broken. Mr. Burdick finally told her she must leave the house, and at once applied for a divorce. Mr. Burdick had been shadowing Mrs. Burdick and Mr. Pennell a long time. Mr. Pennell had detectives shadowing Burdick. So far as appears from the evidence Pennell had not succeeded in compromising Burdick in any way. Not so with Burdick; he had a long list of places where meetings were held, and a batch of letters written to Mrs. Burdick by Pennell. Did Pennell do it? Was he responsible for it?

"He had returned from the dead man's wife the day before the murder. He was very much excited the next morning and went and purchased a revolver. The clerks present at the sale state that at times he did not appear at all like himself. He went to the Falls, and later he telephoned for his wife to come and bring the papers.

"In one of his letters to Mrs. Burdick there is an express threat that he would kill her husband. The cashier and bartender of a New York hotel have testified that he said he would kill a certain man if he went to the gallows for it. His wife had written warning letters. Pennell had full knowledge of the house and it would have been an easy matter for him to obtain a key thereto.

"Altogether, these facts would, in my opinion, constitute just ground of suspicion on which a warrant could be issued were he alive. That would not mean, however, that he was guilty. Let us be as fair, then, to the dead as the law presumes to be the living. He must be presumed innocent until proven guilty.

"The opening of the windows from the inside and no one having gone through, as indicated by the snow and ice on the ledge, would indicate a desire on the part of some one to give this crime the appearance of a burglar's work. The person who waited there to wrap the head of his victim in that blanket and pile pillows on his corpse was not a burglar. Nothing has been missed from the house excepting Burdick's watch.

"Much credit should be given Dr. John R. Howland for his refusal to entertain the suggestion of suicide.

"It is our duty to censure Mrs. Burdick. But great as her wrong has been, great is her punishment."

Judge Murphy stated yesterday afternoon that he will hold the inquest into the death of Arthur R. Pennell the latter part of this week or the first of next week.

Sad Death of a Young Man.

A sad death occurred Tuesday night at the home of Mr. Philip Beezer on Reynolds avenue.

A young man by the name of Harry Shay, aged about twenty years, arrived in town last Thursday to visit his sister, Miss Margaret A. Shay, who makes her home at the residence of Philip Beezer.

Harry has been in ill health for some time, having contracted disease while serving as a soldier in the Philippines. His visit here was in the hope that the change might be a benefit to him. It was not, however, and he died Tuesday night about eleven o'clock.

His home was in Pottsville, where his father and mother reside, and to which place his body will be taken for interment.

We sympathize greatly with his friends, and regret that one so young should be taken from this world as a martyr to his country.

SIX DEAD; TEN DYING

Awful Result of an Accident at Furnace at Braddock, Pa.

THE VICTIMS HORRIBLY BURNED

Large Quantities of White Hot Dust Was Forced Into Pit Where 20 Men Were at Work—All were Burned and Blistered Over Their Entire Bodies.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 1.—An accident at furnace No. 1 of the Edgar Thomson plant of the Carnegie Steel Company at Braddock yesterday is expected to prove one of the worst in the history of the plant in the number of deaths resulting. Twenty men were injured, six of whom are dead and 10 are in the hospital fatally injured. The others injured went to their homes and are suffering from painful burns.

The dead are: John Smith, John Bolou, Andrew Brabae, Joseph Pelar, John Skotak, John Pelar.

The seriously injured are: George Kodok, Michael Steveko, Michael Skunder, Andrew Berrits, Joseph Bobon, Frank Sebula, Steven Bobon, J. Sebula, Michael Miller and Joseph Bubelena.

The accident was caused by a "hang" in the furnace dropping and forcing large quantities of white hot dust down a large pipe into a pit where the men were at work. The victims were caught like rats in a trap, without means of escape, and all were burned and blistered over their entire bodies, and large strips of flesh peeled off their bodies when they were pulled out of the pit by their fellow workmen. The cries of agony of the victims as they writhed in the lava-like stuff from which they were vainly trying to extricate themselves could be heard for nearly a block away. Hundreds of workmen from other portions of the plant rushed to the rescue of their fellows, and as quickly as possible pulled them from the pit and carried them to the emergency hospital. Seven of the men were completely nude when their bodies reached the emergency hospital, and the others had but a few shreds of clothing upon them. The bodies of the fatally burned could scarcely be recognized as such. They were blackened or shredded in strips by the white hot "down-comer" dust that burned into their flesh. Many of the men had large blotches burned through the flesh, caused by splashes of molten iron that had struck them and burned through to the bone.

Furnace "I" is equipped with the Furnace "I" is equippped with the famous electric "skids" and are now used on all United States Steel Corporation blast furnaces.

James Gayley, now first vice president of the United States Steel Corporation, while general manager of the Edgar Thomson Steel Works and blast furnaces at Braddock, said on an occasion somewhat similar to that of yesterday, that if a furnace was working well and making regular casts there was no blast furnaceman in the country who could tell whether that furnace would hang and cause an explosion. He said that if any invention could be brought forward that could forecast "hangings" it would be the greatest invention in blast furnace history and would save many lives, as well as much loss to blast furnace corporations.

Boers' Condition Miserable.

Baltimore, Md., April 1. — General Kritzinger, who commanded the Boer forces during the last year of the Boer war, addressed a large audience last night in the interest of the women and children of South Africa. After being introduced by Mayor Hayes, the Boer chieftain spoke in part as follows: "The conditions in South Africa are miserable in the extreme. The spirit of the people is unbroken, but the industrial resources are exhausted. Many of the Boer women and children have remained in the so-called detention camps, because their male relatives were killed in the war or have no funds with which to take care of them. A large sum is said to have been raised for the relief of the sufferers.

Granted 10 Per Cent. Increase.

Hazleton, Pa., April 1.—Cuyle Brothers, coal operators, yesterday granted the 500 men employed at their strippings an increase of 10 per cent. in wages to go into effect today. This will placate the stripping hands, who were not included in the strike commission award, although they quit work when the strikers struck. The stripping employes had agreed in the absence of any concessions to quit in a body at 5 o'clock this afternoon and force the issue of a nine-hour day granted all outside men by the commission. The action of Cuyle Brothers has forestalled this move, and if the other contractors fall into line, as is expected, the men say they will continue work on the ten-hour basis.

NEARLY SUBMERGED

Skiffs Being Used in Streets of Greenville, Miss.

THE DAMAGE WILL BE HEAVY

Levee May Be Cut to Save the City.

Rescuing People With Boats—Thousands of Acres of Fine Farms Inundated.

Greenville, Miss., March 30. — The backwater from the Lagrange crevasse is slowly rising, and nearly all of the city is submerged. Business is paralyzed and people are moving about the streets in the southern section in skiffs. The sensational reports sent out from here that the city is in danger of destruction are highly exaggerated. The facts do not warrant any such statement. Rumors of great loss of life are absolutely without foundation so far as known here. Relief parties with boats have been at work rescuing people in the path of the flood and the refugees are brought here.

It was said yesterday afternoon that the mayor had instructed the city engineer to cut the protection levee in the northern part of the city, as it is believed it would be the means of letting the water out through Fish Lake. The country beyond the lake is much lower than the city, and if the levee is cut it will stop the rise in Greenville and carry off much of the water now in the city.

All trains left here yesterday afternoon promptly on schedule time. The shut-down of the electric light plant is a serious inconvenience to the people, and lanterns in skiffs may be seen throughout the town at night.

The flood situation outside of Greenville remains practically unchanged. The waters have covered thousands of acres of fine delta farms and is sweeping south to Vicksburg. The loss will be heavy, but it is impossible to give anything like a correct estimate of the damage wrought by the flood.

Yesterday Arcola and Hollandale had their first sight of the water. Rumors have been coming in of breaks in the levee both above and below the city, but none were confirmed at the levee board office, and the president stated that all are holding and that everything is reported favorable.

Rising Two Inches a Day.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 30. — The flood situation in the immediate section is unchanged, but Yazoo City is beginning to feel the effect of water from Lagrange crevasse. The backwater is rising at the rate of two inches a day, and the eastern portion of the town is partially submerged. One fatality occurred there yesterday, a negro by the name of Stephens losing his life by the capsizing of a skiff. The gauge registers 51.6.

STORM SWEEPS NORTH CAROLINA

Great Damage Done Near Newbern By Wind and Rain.

Charlotte, N. C., March 30.—A special from Newbern, N. C., says: A severe wind and rain storm struck this city Saturday night and raged all of yesterday. The Neuse and Trent rivers presented scenes almost equal to the Atlantic on a rough day, being white from shore to shore. In some portions of the city streets are impassable, and down on Union Point people have to be taken from their houses in boats, the tide covering the first floors of their homes.

Grave apprehension is felt for the fishermen who left the city Saturday noon, as it is thought they were struck by the gale when they were miles from land. All prospect for a successful early truck season are doomed, as the wind has blown the peas flat to the earth. It is said by a prominent trucker that the damage done to crops in Craven county will amount to $15,000. Reports from Lagrange say that snow was falling at 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning. A good deal of damage was done to small craft around the city, as they broke loose from their moorings and dashes to pieces and sunk.

A Big Catch of Seals.

St. Johns, N. F., March 30—The sealing steamers Virginia Lake and Aurora arrived here yesterday from the ice fields, the former with 25,000 seals and the latter with 23,000. They report the following catches: Grand Lake, 28,000; Neptune, 22,000; Vanguard, 21,000; Greenland, 20,000; Iceland, 18,000; Southern Cross, 17,000; Terranova, 16,000; Labrador, 12,000; Diana, 11,000; Leopold, 10,000; Frick, 8,000, and Kite, 7,000. The foregoing shows a total of 238,000 seals for two-thirds of the fleet, and this year's catch is likely to reach 360,000 seals altogether.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Now in Progress at the Eighth Avenue Church at Altoona.

The first meeting in connection with the annual assembling of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which opened officially at Altoona Wednesday morning, was held in the Eighth Avenue Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday evening and was in the nature of a temperance rally, being addressed by Miss Shantz, of Chicago, who spoke on the subject, "At the Mercy of the State."

Miss Shantz was at her best, and for an hour and a half held her audience almost spell-bound with her eloquence and convincing logic, moving them to tears and laughter at will. She held the attention of everybody with the most consummate ease and at the conclusion of her address she was applauded by her congregation.

At the close of the address total abstinence cards were distributed among the congregation for signature and were collected by the ushers.

The first session of the Conference was opened promptly at 9 o'clock Wednesday with music, scriptural reading and prayer by Bishop Earl Cranston, of Portland, Oregon, who arrived in the city from Wilmington Conference, over which he presided and which adjourned Monday evening.

At the conclusion of the opening exercises the Conference roll was called by Secretary Thomas S. Wilcox, and 220 ministers responded to their names, note being made of four deaths since the last roll call a year ago, viz: Revs. F. B. Riddle, I. N. Moorehead, A. M. Barnitz and John A. DeMoyer.

Following the roll call, on motion of Rev. J. Ellis Bell, presiding elder of the Altoona district, Rev. Thomas S. Wilcox was unanimously re-elected secretary of the conference, and Rev. A. L. Miller was named as his recorder, while his assistants during the conference will be Revs. J. S. Anderson, M. C. Piper and William Brill.

The conference elected Rev. R. J. Allen statistical secretary with these assistants; Revs. Geo. M. Boggs, M. I. Derstine, John T. Bell, W. L. Armstrong, I. R. Ebner, Joseph E. Brenneman and H. C. Hinkle.

Rev. John Horning, who has been the treasurer for many years, was re-elected to the place and the following named as his assistants: Revs. F. W. Leidy, E. E. Harter, O. H. Albertson, John C. Grimes, F. C. Buyers, J. H. Crites, H. K. Ash, Wm. J. Sheoffer, A. S. Williams and M. N. Walker.

A committee especially appointed for the purpose submitted a resolution welcoming Bishop Cranston to the presiding chair of the conference for the first time, and expressing confidence that under his ruling, guided by the Divine spirit, the conference would be altogether harmonious, would dispatch business in a business way, and that all hoped for one of the most successful, pleasant and edifying sessions the Central Pennsylvania Conference has ever held. Regret was expressed for the illness of Bishop Stephen M. Merrel, who had been selected to preside over the conference. The resolution was heartily adopted.

Bishop Cranston arose and responded to the resolution in a most kindly and appreciative spirit, expressing the hope and confidence that the sessions would all prove of much benefit to the conference and to Methodism at large. He was much gratified at being assigned to preside over the conference and hope that the relations between the members and the presiding officer might grow more familiar as the days progressed, and said he would be glad to hear and consider whatever any member may have to present to him as the presiding bishop.

A resolution was adopted instructing the secretary to express the sympathy of the conference to Rev. Emory M. Stevens, pastor of the Pine Street church at Williamsport, who is quite ill at his home, and to Rev. Owen Hicks and Rev. W. A. Stevens, both of whom have illness in their families, Mr. Hicks' wife is critically ill at Montandon, Pa.

At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Rev. A. L. Miller, of Catawissa, began to preach the annual missionary sermon. He took for his text the 19th verse of the 28th chapter of Matthew. "Go ye into the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." He gave four reasons why the Gospel should be preached to the world viz: 1. Because of the cosmopolitan character of its author or founder. 2. Because of the cosmopolitan character of the Gospel itself. 3. Because of the adaptability to universal humanity. 4. Because the world needs it. The sermon was able and eloquent. Mr. Miller is one of the strong young men of the conference.

A pentecostal service followed the missionary sermon and was conducted by Rev. Joseph H. Smith, who said, every man who enters upon the religious life is like a man who has just come out of prison. Forgiveness is the shutting of the prison doors behind him. Adoption is the opening before him of the door of of his father's house; then comes the earnest spirit which is the father's assurance of his welcome and the promise of the good things he is to receive from his father's hands.

At the evening meeting every available seat and corner for standing was occupied. Rev. J. R. Dunkerley president at the meeting. The first speaker was Rev. Appleton Bush, Ph. D., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Beaver, Pa., who spoke on the league at work in the church. He was followed by Rev. R. H. Gilbert, the president of the conference Epworth league, who discussed the Epworthian in society.

The last speaker was Dr. George Edward Reed, president of Dickinson college, who showed how a higher education was possible for even those young people who have to work their way through school, and paid a high tribute to parents who work and save to fit their children for lives of larger usefulness.

Several addresses were made by conference visitors at Thursday's session. The first speaker, Rev. W. V. Kelley, D. D., editor of the Methodist Review, spoke interestingly of this valued publication. Rev. George P. Mains D. D., of Eaton & Mains, agents of the New York Book Concern, delivered a strong speech in behalf of that institution. He was followed by Rev. George E. Reed D. D., president of Dickinson college, Carlisle, who spoke of the good work being accomplished at the denominational college. Though the time limit for conference visitors is ten minutes each, Bishop Cranston is very indulgent, and the speeches were generally longer than the rule is presumed to allow.

At 10 o'clock the conference corporation held its meeting, when Rev. Dr. W. W. Evans, president of the board of trustees, read the annual reports of the board and of the treasurer, Rev. J. B. Shaver, of Lock Haven. The trustees' annuity fund, the provision for pensioning aged ministers, now invested amounts to $33,000. In the course of the adoption of the reports, Rev. George W. Stevens, of Lewistown, made an interesting announcement. He said that he had authorized a charge of $1000 against him, which amount he agreed to raise for the annuity fund, and until he secured and paid it over, he would pay five per cent. interest upon it.

Revs. S. B. Evans, B. H. Mosser, C. L. Benscoter, John B. Mann and D. S. Monroe D. D. were appointed tellers to count the vote for trustees of the conference corporation. They were sworn by Notary D. R. Miller. The announcement of the vote could not be made before the noon adjournment. The closing half-hour of the morning was taken up by Rev. Dr. Reed in the presentation of his annual report as president of Dickinson College; and Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Neely, of New York, secretary of the Sunday School Union and Tract society, in an interesting address.

The address Thursday afternoon of Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Neely, secretary of the Sunday School Union and Tract society, was forceful and entertaining. He argued that a good Sunday school worker must be devoted and trained especially for the work by his own sacrificing efforts—a college professor, for instance, may know all about conducting a university, but comparatively nothing about the management of a Sunday school. He said the way to secure the co-operation of the parents in the Sunday school is to get their babies, and advocate the necessity of great care in the management of the different grades of the Sunday school in the study of the lessons and the various conditions found in each school. A course of study should be instituted looking toward graduation, and this to be rewarded by a diploma of graduation. The home department should be organized when the Sunday school is established. The study of the lesson in the home by those who cannot attend the school will establish the lost art of religious conversation in the home. There should be a teachers' training class wherever it can be established. Teachers should and must receive training if they would be efficient in their work. Better instruction in our Sunday schools is one of the crying needs of the times

Rev. G. W. Stevens, of Lewistown, presided at the evening session and a multitude of people were present. Rev. C. C. Albertson, D. D., of Germantown, Pa., delivered a very interesting address on the purpose and work of the Church Extension Society. Born in 1865 the society has disbursed from its treasury $7,750,000 to aid needy churches within the bounds of the United States. In the thirty-eight years of its past history 1,300 churches have been assisted by this great and benovelent institution. Within the walls of these edifices 3,250,000 souls can find accommodation. During the past thirty-eight years this society has aided 100 churches in Maine, 130 in Florida, 265 in Washington, 318 in California, 764 in Kansas and 358 in Pennsylvania. In the south 3,600 churches, white and colored, have been made a possibility. For an hour he held the great audience as he eloquently described the needs of his cause, closing with an appeal for material aid, that the work now so well begun in the interests of the colored people of the south may be carried successfully forward.

At Friday morning's session of conference the reports of all the presiding elders were read, in order as follows: Rev. J. Ellis Bell, Altoona district; Rev. J. Harper Black D. D., Williamsport district, Rev. W. W. Evans D. D., Danville district; Rev. Amos S. Baldwin, Juniata district, Rev. E. H. Yocum D. D., Harrisburg district. The conspicuous feature of the reports was the showing made in the amount of missionary collections, every district presenting a material advance. The amount collected for missions in the Altoona district was over $13,000 an increase of more than $1,000 over last year's total. Rev. Dr. Black reported an increase of over $500 in the Williamsport district, bringing its total to nearly $13,000. Rev. Dr. Evans, from the Danville district, despite the long continued coal strike, was able to report a $200 increase in the missionary collections. Many church improvements have been made throughout the conference bounds, advances have been made in liquidating debts, and gratifying increases in membership were reported. In connection with the presiding elders' reports the characters of the effective elders within the several districts were passed.

Several strong addresses were made during the morning. First Rev. C. C. Albertson D. D., pastor of the First Methodist church at Germantown, presented the interests of the Church Extension society. He was followed by Rev. Dr. M. C. B. Mason, the colored secretary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education society, in a characteristically persuasive, eloquent and witty speech. Then Rev. Dr. Davidson, field secretary of the American University at Washington, spoke in behalf of that institution. The last speaker was Rev. Luther B. Wilson D. D., of the Baltimore conference, who represented the Woman's Home Missionary society, and gave a telling address in its interest. It was a decidedly interesting session throughout.

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon the conference went into executive session to consider the cases of the second year class who are candidates for full membership in the effective ministry.

The executive session of the conference was held Friday afternoon. A dozen applicants were elected to full membership in the conference and the following were passed in the studies of the fourth year and were elected to elders orders: Joseph E. Brenneman, William E. Karns Dorsey N. Miller, J. Warren Rose, Walter G. Steel, J. H. Ake, recommended by the Williamsburg quarterly conference and J. E. A. Buck recommended by the quarterly conference of New Germantown, N. J., were elected local deacons. All these will be ordained at the ordination service on Sunday afternoon. The report of the presiding elder of the Danville district in the case of Dr. S. C. Swallow was received and the following resolution was then adopted: "Resolved, that it is the sense of the conference that our presiding bishop be relieved from the embarassement attending him in connection with the report of the select number in the case of S. C. Swallow, that we accept the said report as sufficiently covering the case and that the character of S. C. Swallow be now passed." At 3.30 Rev. Joseph Smith conducted the usual evangelistic services, which were largely attended, and signalized by presence and power of the Holy Ghost. A large and interested congregation was present.

At Saturday's session of conference the roll of the effective ministers was completed, and those upon the superannuated and supernumerary roll were also passed. Rev. John C. Grimes, E. S. Lathshaw and F. A. Creveling were transfered from effective to supernumerary relation. Rev. H. B. Fortner, for thirty-five years a faithful and successful effective minister, was given superannuated relation.

A fine address full of encouragement and inspiration, was delivered by Rev. Stephen O. Benton D. D, of the Southern New England conference, who is the successor of the able Rev. Dr. Baldwin as corresponding secretary of the Missionary society. Other addresses were made by Rev. J. A. Lippincott D. D., of the Methodist Hospital, Philadelphia, Rev. James Morrow D. D., of the American Bible society; and Mr. Magill, of Chicago for the Church Insurance society.

At 10.30 o'clock Bishop Cranston called to the bar of the conference the class elected to full membership, namely Micheal B. Bubb, Harry C. Burkholder, Harry E. Crow, J. Rollin Ebner, Elmer F. Ilgenfritz, George W. McInay, Harry J. Schuchart, James E. Skillington, Abner C. Logan and Herbet Hinkle. To these young men he delivered an earnest charge, his address being nearly an hour in length. At its conclusion he propounded the disciplinary questions to the class who become full members and deacons in the conference.

Saturday afternoon there was two meetings, the anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society and the annual meeting of the Mutual Beneficial association.

Health is a magnet which irresistibly draws the man to the woman in life's mating time. Health does more than tint the skin with beauty; it puts music into the voice and buoyancy into the step, as well as happiness into the heart. A great many women covet beauty and are constantly seeking aids to beautify them. Let a woman first seek perfect health and all other charms shall be added to her.

There can be no general health for women while there is disease of the delicate womanly organism. The first step to perfect health is to cure womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I used four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elmer D. Shearer, of Mounthope, Lancaster Co., Pa., "and can say that I am cured of that dreaded disease, uterine trouble. Am in better health than ever before. Everyone who knows me is surprised to see me look so well. In June I was so poor in health that at times I could not walk. To-day I am cured. I tell everybody that Dr. Pierce's medicines cured me."

Hundreds are going blind daily, from the need of the proper prescribed glasses and from delaying attention to the eyes from time to time. Nothing will destroy your eyesight quicker than cheap glasses or glasses not properly fitted to your eyes.

Prof. Angel, in the short time he has been visiting this section, has met with marked success. Scores of leading citizens of this community have found relief from his treatment. It is not necessary to travel to Eastern cities for treatment when you can consult an eminent oculist at home.

I can examine your eyes at your home, by appointment, without extra charge.

Arrangements For Western Trip Given Out at Washington.

HE WILL TRAVEL 14,000 MILES

St. Louis Fair Dedication, California Redlands and Big Tree Grove Features of Trip—Will Make a Number of Addresses.

Washington, March 30.—All arrangements for President Roosevelt's western tour have been completed and the itinerary was given out Saturday night. The president will leave Washington on Wednesday, at 9.05 a. m., over the Pennsylvania Railroad on a special train, and will be accompanied by Secretary Barnes, the surgeon general of the navy and three stenographers; C. R. Rosenberg, representing the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; representatives of three press associations, three weekly papers and a photographer; P. W. Williams, Western Union Telegraph Company; J. P. Gooch, Postal Telegraph Company; three messengers and four others.

The run to Chicago, the first stopping place will be made direct, allowing only for the necessary railroad changes. Chicago will be reached on the morning of April 2. The program for Chicago and vicinity will include visits to the Northwestern University and Chicago University and a meeting at the Auditorium in the evening.

Few changes have been made in the itinerary as published several days ago. During the visit to Minneapolis on April 4 the president will be entertained at dinner at the Minneapolis Club, and afterward will deliver an address at Bismarck, N. D., on April 6, at the state capitol.

Upon the arrival in St. Louis on the evening of April 29 the president and party will be escorted to Odeon Hall, where a few minutes' visit will be made to the National and International Good Roads Convention. The following morning at 10.30 o'clock the president will go to a reviewing stand to review a parade, and in the afternoon will attend the ceremonies incident to the dedication of the buildings of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. Later the president and his party will dine at the administration building and will view a pyrotechnic display in the evening.

At Kansas City, on May 1, the president will deliver an address at Convention Hall. At 2 p. m. he will be met by a committee from Kansas City, Kan., and escorted to that city, where he will make a brief address. Upon his arrival at Topeka, at 6 p. m., he will take part in the exercises of laying the corner stone of the Y. M. C. A. building.

In California an interesting program has been arranged. On May 7 the party will remain at Redlands for three hours. Governor Pardee will welcome the president to the state at that point. Two hours will be spent at San Bernardino during the afternoon, and Riverside will re reached at 6 p. m. The party will proceed to Casa Blanca, and be taken for a drive over the famous avenues and through orange groves to the city.

After visiting Claremont and Pasadena the party will go to Los Angeles. During the afternoon of May 8 the president will review the floral parade, after which the party will be driven through the business and residence sections of the city. In the evening the president will be escorted to a reviewing stand to witness an electric parade.

Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo will be visited during the next day.

Sunday, May 10, will be passed quietly at the Hotel Del Monte, Monterey. On Monday a brief stop will be made at Pajaro, and Santa Cruz will be reached at 9.55 a. m. The party will then be taken by special train to the big tree grove, where they will be entertained at an informal lunch by the citizens of Santa Cruz.

San Francisco will be reached at 2.15 p. m. The president will remain there until midnight of the 14th. During his stay he will visit the University of California at Berkeley, and will also go to Oakland.

Friday, May 10, the president and party will reach Raymond, Cal., at 8 a. m., and the next four days will be spent in resting and viewing the beauties of the Yosemite Valley and the big trees.

The return trip to Washington will be made very quietly. The president will reach Washington at 7.05 p. m., June 5. The time occupied on the trip will be 66 days. The distance traveled will be about 14,000 miles, through 22 states.

COTTON MILLS CLOSED

Manufacturers Suspend Operations In Preference to Fighting Union.

Lowell, Mass., March 30.—In preference to fighting the textile unions of Lowell, the agents of seven big cotton mills Saturday ordered an entire suspension of work for an indefinite period. Several days ago these agents officially announced that a canvass of the help showed that upwards of 80 per cent. were non-union and were opposed to a strike. This sentiment changed, and when a second canvass was taken of the loom fixers, mule spinners, carders, nappers, weavers and beamers Saturday it was seen that the Textile Council was able to fulfill its threat and strike in the mills today.

Without delay notices of a shutdown, to take effect at once, were posted on the gates, and as piece hands completed their work they were told to leave. When speed went down at noon fully 17,000 operatives had been forced into idleness. The length of the shut down is problematical, but it is likely to last many weeks, as the unions have been promised financial support from the United Textile Workers of America, the National Mule Spinners' Association, the American Federation of Labor and from the local trades and Labor Council, composed of 45 unions.

Agent W. S. Southworth, of the Massachusetts Mills, secretary of the Manufacturers' Association, says that if the mill people think that the shutdown will be for a fortnight they are greatly mistaken. It will last, he says, until the agents are positively told that all the operatives want to work, and when this time comes the agents will consider the matter of resumption.

PLOT TO BLOW UP MINES

West Virginia Officer Claims to Have Evidence Against Strikers.

Charleston, W. Va., March 30. — Deputy United States Marshal Dan Cunningham arrived yesterday from Raleigh county, where he has been serving writs upon the strikers who were indicted by the recent special grand jury in connection with the trouble at Stannaford. Marshal Cunningham states that he has in his possession evidence in the shape of an affidavit from a former member of the miners' union of an alleged plot to dynamite the drift mines of W. P. Rend on Arbuckle Creek, Fayette county, while the mines were filled with men and mules, and also to surprise and attack the mine guards on duty at the Rend works.

The affidavit is made by James Young, a miner, who attended the meetings of the strikers where the alleged plans were said to have been discussed and adopted. The affidavit was made to S. L. Walker, a notary public of Fayette county, and the names of a number of strikers who took part in the meetings are given. It is stated that further investigation will be made for evidence to present to the grand jury.

THE PRICE OF COAL

Miners Anxiously Awaiting Operators' New Schedule.

Scranton, Pa., March 30.—No one is looking forward more anxiously than the miners to Thursday, when the operators issue the April circular, which will contain the price list on which the rates for coal will be based for a year. Invariably so far the price has dropped 50 cents on April 1, and increased 10 cents a month for five months, when the 50 cent drop is recouped and continues stationary for the winter.

Coal is now selling for $5. If it is cut to $4.50 and advances 10 cents a month until September the miners under the award of the strike commission will next winter be receiving a 20 per cent. advance over the present rates of pay, as they are to get a 1 per cent. advance for every advance of 5 cents a ton that coal takes in excess of $4.50.

Killed Going to Fire.

Pittsburg, March 30. — While answering a fire call Saturday night, one fireman was killed and three others badly injured. Their names are: Robert H. Wilson, driver of the hose carriage, killed almost instantly; Captain Sanford Thompson, back sprained; Lieutenant Harry Weaver, bruised face and leg injured; Adam Ruppert, serious wound on head and back sprained. The firemen were on the hose carriage, going at a high speed, when a wagon turned into the street ahead of it at the corner of Park avenue. Wilson was unable to check the team in time to prevent a collision, and all of the firemen were thrown to the ground. The wheels of the carriage went over Wilson, almost cutting him in two.

First to Get Their Back Pay.

Mt. Carmel, Pa., March 30.—The owners of the White & White colliery were the first in this region to pay their employes the stipulated sum allotted to them through the strike commission. Saturday afternoon the men received their regular two weeks' pay, including the extra compensation for the first two weeks of November.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." C. M. Parrish.

PRINCE CHEN ARRIVES

New Chinese Minister and Suite Reaches San Francisco.

HE IS A GRADUATE OF YALE

Suite Comprises Fifty-three Secretaries and Diplomats, Thirteen of Whom Will Be Stationed In Washington.

San Francisco, March 27.—Sir Chen Tung Liang Cheng, K. R. M. G., the new Chinese minister to the United States, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Korea. Minister Cheng is accompanied by his entire suite and party, which includes about 20 students. Most prominent among this last category is the eldest son of Viceroy Chang Chih Tung. There is also in the student party the only son of Tuang Fang, the Manchu governor of Hupeh, and a third distinguished figure among the students is the son of the late Hsi Tung Shan, chief imperial tutor of the late Emperor Tung Chih.

LIANG CHEN TUNG.

The party will remain in this city for some time before proceeding to Washington.

Minister Cheng is accompanied by his daughter and two sons. In his suite are 53 secretaries, diplomats and legation attaches, as well as nine servants. His private secretary is Yeng Kwai, who acted in a like capacity on the staff of ex-Minister Wu Ting Fang. He is a graduate of Yale, and has seen much success in the Chinese diplomatic service.

Thirteen of the diplomats of the party will be stationed at Washington. Four will be sent to Peru, where Mr. Chun will be installed as consul. Liao Ngan Tow will go to Cuba, where he will take charge of the consulate, succeeding Chow Thee Chi, who will come to San Francisco as consul. Kit Shai will become consul at New York.

Minister Cheng Tung Liang Cheng in an interview said: "I can have no better example than that of Minister Wu. He tried to educate the American people out of their prejudice against my countrymen as a race. Of course, I realize that the Americans will never permit the unrestricted coming of Chinese laborers. Nobody desires that. I do not think it would be wise if they did. But the American government and American statesmen have shown the most friendly spirit toward China in the troublous times of the last three years, and I hope much from that. I will maintain friendly relations and will try to do what I can along the lines marked out by Minister Wu, to secure the amelioration of existing laws. I know what unrestricted immigration would mean, and I realize how much this is an issue with the American people and with American politicians. I will do what I can, but I don't expect to do too much. It is a question of hoping."

Consul's Commission Held Up.

Washington, March 27.—Guayaquil is acquiring a bad reputation as a consular port. First came the pathetic death of the Artist Nast; then Mr. Sawter went to the city and fled incontinently because of the yellow fever epidemic, leaving a vacancy, and within a few months has occurred the vacancy which remains to be filled, for Dr. William Shaw Bowen will not take the place though he was nominated and confirmed by the senate as consul. It is said that some old naval court martial record has been revived to his detriment, causing the withdrawal of his backers, the Rhode Island senators, and the consequent failure of the state department to issue his commission.

Ammonia Tank Explodes.

Chicago, March 28. — A 100-pound tank of ammonia exploded in the Fulton market last night. The market is a building on Fulton street between Morgan and Green streets. Before the flames were extinguished damage to the amount of $100,000 had been done. Two men were overcome by the fumes of ammonia and were carried out by the police.

Ferry Boat Burned.

New York, March 30.—The double-decked ferry boat Bound Brook, of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, was burned to the water's edge yesterday afternoon. No passengers were on board, as at the time the fire was discovered the boat was out of commission for the day and lying in her slip on the Jersey side. Tugs towed her into mid-stream, thus saving the other ferry boats in the slip.

Mahanoy City, Pa., March 30.—At a meeting here of the representatives of the 12 breweries, comprising the Anthracite Brewers' Association, it was decided to fight the strike of the United Brewery Workers for higher wages to a finish. Washington, March 30.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her children will take their projected cruise on the president's yacht, the Mayflower, during the coming week. They bade good-bye last night to the president, who leaves on his western trip Wednesday morning, and they then boarded the Mayflower, which was lying at the navy yard here for some days. If the weather is good the vessel will go out into the open sea, the first stop being made at Port Royal, S. C. New York, March 30. — Herman Bowman Esher, of Chicago, a student at Yale University, killed himself by putting a bullet through his head yesterday in his room at the Hotel Manhattan, in this city. From letters in the youn gman's room were found indications that he had been greatly worried over something, presumably business matters, but the letters give little clue as to the cause of his trouble. Deceased was the only son of Edward B. Esher, a lawyer of Chicago, and was a grandson of Bishop Bowman, of the Evangelical Church. He was 20 years of age.

Well-Known Editor Dead.

Philadelphia, March 30. — William V. McKean, who for nearly 30 years was editor-in-chief of the Public Ledger, died at his home here yesterday, at the age of 83 years. In 1864 Mr. McKean became editor-in-chief of the Ledger and retired in 1891 owing to old age.

Old and New Friends.

Make new friends but keep the old;
Those are silver, thes eare gold.
New made friends, like new made wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test,
Time and change are surely best.
Brow may wrinkle, hair turn gray,
Friendship never owns decay;
For mid old friends kind and true
We once more our youth renew.
But, alas, old friends must die;
New friends must their place supply.
Then cherish friendship in your breast;
New is good, but old is best,
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.

KODOL
Digests What You Eat.
Weak Hearts
Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.
Kodol
Digests What You Eat
Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y., writes: After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammeled action.

Keep the Bell at Home.

Boston will celebrate the one-hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill June 17th next and wants to borrow the Liberty Bell for the occasion, promising to pay the expenses both ways. The promise is alluring, but the prospect of another Liberty Bell trip is not.

The Liberty Bell is one of the most sacred relics of the Republic and should not be sent upon endangering journeys here and there over the country as a mere curiosity. It should be kept in its well guarded quarters in Philadelphia and never sent anywhere for any purpose whatever, except in case of great conflagration or invasion by an enemy.

The Liberty Bell junkets always jeopardize that relic. There have been great public complaints as to the cost of these junkets, but that is another question. Railroad trains are as safe as human ingenuity can make them, but there are many wrecks upon railroads in a day.

The Bell has thus far escaped injury, but it may not always escape the fate that befel the pitcher that went to the well too often. It would probably take only one accident to do the irreparable damage, and that would be the end of the Bell.

Keep the Bell at home. The people of Boston can muster up sufficient patriotism without it at the Bunker Hill celebration.

State Zoologist Must Go.

Governor Pennypacker has demanded the official head of Benjamin F. MacCartney, of Jefferson county, the State Economic Zoologist. MacCartney is the son-in-law of ex-Senator James S. Mitchell, who actively supported Elkin for the Gubernatorial nomination. The presumption is that the place will be given to either Dr. B. H. Warren, of Chester county, or Professor H. A. Surface, of State College.

It is also said that Frank S. Charon, of Milton, at present in MacCartney's department, will be transferred to a clerkship under Forestry Commissioner Rothrock, and that his present place will be tendered to Miss Mary V. Rhone, of Centre Hall, daughter of Leonard Rhone, formerly Worthy Master of the State Grange.

The Home Paper.

The local paper should be found in every home. Children who can be taught to appreciate the home paper should not grow up in ignorance. It is said to be the stepping stone of intelligence in all those matters not to be learned in books. Give your children a foreign paper which contains not one word about any person, place or thing which they ever saw or heard of, how could you expect them to be interested? But let them have the home paper and read of people whom they meet and places with which they are familiar, and soon an interest is awakened which increases with every arrival of the local paper. Thus the habit of reading is formed and those children will read the paper all their lives and become intelligent men and women, a credit to their ancestors, in the knowledge of the world as it is today.

—After our little dip into the debt-collecting trouble down in Venezuela the report that President Roosevelt will send warships to collect from Turkey seems a bit humorous.

—An ordinance imposing a fine of not more than two dollars upon persons who are found in an intoxicated condition on our streets has been passed. The ordinance is all right, properly inforced.

—Lock Haven has taken the initiative in the matter of a monster Fourth of July celebration in that city. The Fire companies will hold a meeting on Friday night to put things in shape.

—In the state senate on Wednesday the bill amending the act prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to persons under 16 years of age by raising the age to 18 years, passed finally. They should have made it 25 years.

—Hon. W. C. Heinle is always doing the handsome thing. His latest act was to secure and present to the Lock Haven library a complete set of Pennsylvania Archives, the receipt of which is acknowledged through the Lock Haven papers.

—Rev. J. C. Grimes, a Methodist Minister attending conference at Altoona, attempted suicide in that city Thursday, by shooting himself in the head. The unfortunate man is supposed to be mentally affected on account of ill health. He is in the Altoona Hospital and there are strong hopes of his recovery.

—The rain of Monday afternoon seriously interfered with moving arrangments, and as a result, it has made the "flitting" business lively today. There are many changes being made, more in fact, than usual, for what reason, we cannot tell unless every one thinks they are bettering their condition. It will take some time for the people to become acquainted with their new neighbors, but we hope no one will regret the change they have made.

—Mr. D. J. Meyer, of Centre Hall, father of Prof. John Meyer, returned about ten days ago from spending the winter in South Carolina. He was an eye-witness to the dastardly murder of Gonzales by Tillman. Mr. Meyer was within a few feet of where the tragedy occurred and saw the shot fired and heard every word spoken by either party. If it was justice they wanted in South Carolina Mr. Meyer would be a valuable witness, but there is little prospect of any trial taking place.

—The question of a twelve days encampment was discussed by the National Guard association at its meeting at Harrisburg. Guardsmen as a rule are in favor of the longer encampment, but on the other hand, the fear is expressed that owing to the probable inability of so many young men to be absent from their occupation for such a length of time, many of them would refuse to join the guard. This matter will be thoroughly canvassed by the association. We feel quite certain that Company B is in favor of the 12 days encampment.

—The Tyrone Daily Herald gives notice, that after today, the carrier boys will not be permitted to sell copies of that paper to any one, that they will only serve regular subscribers. So hereafter, if any, not a subscriber, wants that paper it will be necessary to go to the office of publication to secure it. This will be a great inconvenience to hundreds of persons who have been in the habit of buying from the carriers, and who will now be compelled to go down town to get the evening news. We fail to understand what Bro. Jones is driving at, but of course he knowns his business.

—Senor Pedro Alvarado, the millionaire philanthropist who has offered to pay the public debt of Mexico, has risen to wealth and power within a very short time. A year or two ago he was a "peon," working with hundreds of other men in the mines, with the familiar big hat of the Mexican miner on his head, and sandals on his feet. To-day he is rich beyond the dreams of avarice, and every year adds a new million to his vast estate. The discovery of a mine was the beginning of his rise, and this mine, situated at Parral, in the State of Chihuahua, has proven to be one of the largest ore producers in the country, with an output of about 2000 tons a days.

—The Salona creamery was destroyed by fire Friday night and the loss is about $4,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire broke out about 11.45 o'clock and the orgin is unknown. The creamery was a frame building fitted up with the latest improved machinery for making butter and ice cream. The plant was owned by a stock company in which many Nittany valley farmers were interested. A large shipment of butter had been made recently, consequently there was only a small quantity on hand at the time of the fire, but a large number of dozens of eggs were burned. The flames communicated to the blacksmith shop of Samuel Shaffer and it was destroyed, entailing a loss of about $300, on which there is no insurance.

—If you want to glide easily through the tired feeling season use more elbow grease.

—What the lazy man regards as a stumbling block the hustler uses as a stepping stone.

—The quarrelsome man won't admit that he is in the wrong until the other fellow apologizes.

—When a married man makes up his mind to practice economy he begins by cutting down his wife's allowance.

—There are people who take more comfort from growling about their bad luck than from enjoying their good luck.

—When fortune knock at the door some people don't answer for fear it might be a collector.

—Brit Steel tells some marvelous yarns in a business way, but some of them are pretty hard to swallow. He tried to work one on us Wednesday afternoon but failed miserably.

—Strawbridge & Clothiers Salesman will be here, Saturday, April 4th to give an opening at the Bush House for Mrs. Aikens; and take special orders.

—Johnstown has been selected by the State Board of Health to be the headquarters of the sanitary campaign against smallpox in Western Pennsylvania which will shortly begin.

—No man can make his business go without pushing it along. This can be done only by advertising. Every man can increase his business in that way. Advertise freely and then prepare for more patronage.

—Elias Snyder, the well known farmer of East Nittany, Tuesday made the discovery that thieves had visited his smokehouse and carried off sixteen pieces of choice smoked hams and shoulders. There is no clue to the guilty parties.

—Robt. F. Hunter the zinc magnate has unearthed his moter cycle and had it in use Wednesday. Besides covering a great distance in short time, he makes it interesting to the horses, who try their best to stand on their heads whenever they see it.

—S. D. Ray Esq., is confined to his house by an attack of the fashionable disease la-grippe. So if any one wants to see him, and cannot wait, they must call on him at his residence on Howard street. If he is as "grouchy" as la-grippe patients generally are—we would advise them to wait.

—"As we are approaching Arbor day," said a woman who is interested in forestry, "and as those who transplant trees are desirous that the work be done successfully, I will give them a suggestion from Virgie. The poet, in writing of the method pursued in his day, tells us that before removing the tree a mark should be placed upon it. Then, when it is replanted the marked side should be placed in the same direction in which it formerly stood. This may not be generally known. If it is it will do no harm to those who are not acquainted with the theory."

—We were taken to task Friday by our handsome medical friend whose office is located on High street, for our criticism on the Bostonian Sextette Club entertainment. He said we were too ignorant to appreciate what was good, and then went off in ecstasy over the classical music, how it touched a responsive chord in his soul, and held him entranced. We thought him a little too enthusiastic, so after looking into the matter, discovered that the gentleman could not tell the difference in the music of a Calithumpian Band or Damrosch Orchestra, unless some one told him.

—A smooth faced young man of dark complexion, apparently about 25 years old, sold to Mrs. Clara Bratton of Logan township, Blair county, on Wednesday, a certificate for $1, entitling her to a membership in the Burial League of the United States. Upon the death of any member of the family the agent said the league would pay Mrs. Bratton $100. The man signed himself W. C. Kline. He also collected money in the same way in other towns in the vicinity of Tyrone telling his victims, that the receipt could be cashed at the Tyrone postoffice at any time. Several such receipts have been presented at the postoffice there, but of course they are of no value.

—Arthur B. Kimport who has occupied for several years the position of Deputy Prothonotary, has resigned that position to take effect on Saturday. David Foreman of Potter Township has been selected by the Prothonotary to fill the vacancy. Mr. Kimport has been obliged to relinquish his post on account of his health, which has become somewhat impaired by close confinement. He will remove to Harris Township and engage in the strenuous and noble calling of farmer, and we have no doubt will soon become one of the leading Grangers of the state. Arthur, we are sorry to lose you from Bellefonte, you have been a good citizen, a faithful and accommodating officer and have succeeded in making hosts of friends who wish you unbounded success in your new venture.

—The best way to prepare for a public address, said an English orator, is to construct a certain number of "islands"—meaning thereby effective sentences,—and then swim by extempore effort from island to island when the hour of utterance comes. The most desirable island is that to be saved for the peroration. No such counsel is needed for a campaign speaker which has been made in a factory, and is to be used in the coming municipal campaign in New York City. It is regarded as a sure vote-getter. Phonographs, with huge megaphones, will constitute the "oratorical lips" on which a crowd is supposed to hang. A wagon is to carry them, and the driver can start or stop them at will. As the vehicle passes along the streets, thunderous appeals and invitation will reach the multitude. There will be oratory which signs of dissent will not check nor applause kindle.

Colonel E. R. Chambers Not a Candidate for Delegate to the State Convention.

Col. E. R. Chambers requests us to make the following announcement to his many friends over the county:

Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh, who is the present Auditor General of Pennsylvania, had announced himself as a candidate for State Treasurer.

I am a great admirer of General Hardenbergh and was anxious to go to the State convention in his interest. In today's Philadelphia papers General Hardenbergh announces that he has withdrawn from the contest. Under these circumstances I do not care to be a delegate to the State convention.

Thanking all my friends for their many assurances of support which they have given me, I beg to remain,

Very truly,

E. R. CHAMBERS.

March 25, 1903.

Walton Emigh's Sad Death.

Walton Emigh, the 13 year old son and only child of Dr. and Mrs Geo. W. Emigh, of Philipsburg, died Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the result of injuries sustained by falling from a telephone pole on Tuesday of last week. It will be remembered that in the fall both arms were broken, one of them in two places, and this from the beginning proved of a serious character. Unfortunately, lock-jaw set in and hastened his death.

The deceased was an unusually bright boy, and was universally liked by all who knew him. We deeply sympathize with the parents in their sad bereavement.

Clerk-Carrier Examinations.

The United States Civil Service Commissioner announces that on May 6, 1903, an examination will be held for the position of clerk and carrier in the postoffice service in Bellefonte. This examination will be held in order to give all persons who desire to apply an opportunity to be examined for positions in the Bellefonte office.

For application blanks, instructions and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply to William H. Garman, secretary postal board, at the postoffice.

Age limit, all positions, 18 to 45 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed prior to the hour of closing business on Saturday, April 18, 1903.

Two fires Near Howard.

At about seven o'clock Wednesday morning Howard Township was visited by two conflagrations which resulted in the total distruction of a house and barn.

The house belonged to Mrs. Deitz and was occupied by Lizzie Haines, and was situated about half a mile from the Borough of Howard, the flames had made such headway before discovery that it was impossible to save the property.

At the same time the barn of John Lyons situated on the public road leading to Curtin township was also discovered to be on fire and was totally destroyed. We have not learned the loss sustained by Mrs. Deitz, but Mr. Lyons loss will be over $1000.

The fires are supposed to be of incendiary origin.

Morning Wedding at Blanchard.

About 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon J. E. Goodwin, of DuBois, and Miss Ella Larkins, of Flemington, drove to the home of Rev. M. C. Frick at Blanchard, where they were united in marriage by Rev. C. H. Frick. The driver left Mr. Goodwin and his bride at the N. Y. C. station at Beech Creek where they took the 11 o'clock train for a three weeks' wedding trip, after which they will reside at DuBois. They are both popular young people and have a host of friends to join in good wishes for their future happiness.

Ten Dollars and Costs.

A bibulous individual from Powelton, named Martin, got very gay up at Osceola Wednesday night, and being on the Centre county side of the line was taken down to Philipsburg and landed in the "bastile" over night for safe keeping. He had a hearing before 'Squire LaPorte the next morning and before he got his liberty was mulcted in the sum of $10 and costs. He left that town Thursday evening a sadder and a poorer man, if not a wiser one.

At the Presbyterian Parsonage Friday Night.

The Presbyterian social, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of that church, was held at the parsonage Friday night. The handsome and spacious parlors were filled with ladies, gentlemen and children, who took advantage of the occasion to spend an evening together socially. A fair proportion of gentlemen were there, just about as many as are found at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. We often wonder why so little interest is manifested in church affairs by the men. If they only knew it, they miss much pleasure by not taking a more active part in the affairs of the church. Most of them think if they subscribe and pay their proportion of expenses, they have done all that is required. Those who failed to attend the social last night deprived themselves of a vast amount of pleasure, for everyone there enjoyed themselves.

The refreshments, which were served about nine o'clock, were choice and in abundance. The silver offering was received, and from the quantity of coin on the plate it must have amounted to a handsome sum.

The ladies of that church have raised a vast quantity of money during the past few years, and unless they have spent it, must have a large balance in bank. They will not squander it and some day, no doubt, when the Trustees get into a tight place, will help them out. If it were not for the efforts of the ladies most churches would be constantly in financial straits.

Grand Millinery Opening.

The Millinery Opening at Katz & Co.'s is without exception the finest display of ladies' hats and bonnets ever shown in Bellefonte. We had the pleasure of looking in for a few moments on the busy and bewildering scene. Of course, our judgment in such matters is not worth much nor would it go far, but we are free to confess that the head-gear is beautiful, and this season's styles are prettier than ever before. Miss Wilson, who has charge of the department, possesses exquisite taste and her skill in forming these creations is marvelous. We advise the lady readers of our paper to call and see for themselves, and they cannot fail to be delighted with the form, shape and style of the opening display.

Where People Die of Old Age.

One of the most remarkable cities in the world is Kelburg, near Cracow, Poland, for, besides being situated underground, it is excavated entirely in rock salt. Most of the inhabitants work in the famous salt mines, and all the streets and houses are of the purest white imaginable. One of the most famous features of the city is the cathedral, carved in salt and lighted by electricity, and when the late Czar Alexander visited it he was so fasinated with the magnificent effect of the light upon the crystal walls that he persented the cathedral with a jeweled altar cross. Such a thing as infectious disease is unknown in Kelburg: in fact, the majority of the inhabitants die of old age

Buy Your Coal in April.

The Reading Coal & Iron company announces that on April 1 there will be a reduction in the price of anthracite coal of fifty cents from the present circular. There will subsequently be an advance of ten cents a ton each month from the April figure until the winter price is restored.

The Number Seven.

The ancients believed and taught that seven planets ruled the world and its inhabitants, thus accounting for the seven days of the week, the seven holes in the head, the seven colors of the spectrum and the seven senses. The superstition attaching to the seventh daughter of a seventh daughter endows such a person with magical gifts and unlimited good luck.

Among noted events and things that bear this mystical number are the Seven Days' war, the great conflict for German supremacy, the seven churches of Asia, the seven sleepers of Ephesus and the seven wonders of the world.—American Queen.

The Weather.

Forecast for this section: Fair today and tomorrow; fresh west to southwest winds.

Mr. Whitmer is one of Ferguson township most prosperous farmers and owns a beautiful home at White Hall, where an elegant wedding supper was given up on their arrival home in the evening. EASTER.

Easter time again returning
Brings us thoughts of Jesus tomb—
Of the angel there within it,
Of the early morning gloom;
And of Jesus outside standing,
To the women there made known,
And the mystery of the power
Which had rolled away the stone.

Does the stone of pleasure-seeking
Rest against our Sabbath day,
Keeping many from the privilege
Of the house of God away?
Let the members rouse to action,
Open churches always shown,
'Till the power which gave the Sabbath
Shall have rolled away that stone.

Does the stone we call Intemperance
Rest 'gainst Centre County's life?
Does it darken youthful intellect
With its wastefulness and strife?
Let the power of the ballot
And true abstinence be shown
By all leaders in the county—
Thus you'll roll away that stone.

Does the stone of profane talking,
Mixed with vulgar, low remark,
Shadow much of conversation,
Causing lightness to be dark?
Let example and all teaching
For the young so pure be shown
That before we realize it
Rolled away will be that stone.

Does the stone which we call Ignorance
Keep a class of people down
In the places most obscure,
Or the village or the town?
Help the sale of good newspapers,
Let them in the schools be known,
'Till the power of such knowledge
Shall have rolled away that stone.

Lastly, does an evil spirit
Keep the love of God away?
Has this Easter no more meaning
Than a common working day?
Seek the Saviour, as did Mary,
All within this county known,
And the power which gave us Easter
Now shall roll away that stone.

—MRS. MARTHA S. THOMAS

"Boy Wanted."

—It is maintained that in these timesof colossal fortunes, monopolies, and gigantic trusts, there is no chance for the boy; that he cannot, therefore, achieve success, even though great may be his ability and his ambition. Moreover, that the number of strugglers for place is so great that there is far less opportunity than formerly for the individual.

To a certain extent this may be true, yet never before was there a time when reliable, steady boys were more in demand. Boys so honest and upright that they are above suspicion. Many men occupying responsible positions are obliged themselves to perform much unnecessary work, because they cannot find boys whom they can implicitly trust. There are boys; but the kind that men are constantly and eagerly seeking are

Boys of honor—moral might,
Boys who swerve not from the right,
Boys whose No will earnest be,
As from temptation swift they flee.

Such steadfast boys are always wanted in this hustling, busy world.

Circumstantial Evidence.

Last spring a truck farmer who raised large quantities of onions for the market was very much annoyed by having the beds torn up and plundered again and again. He had good reason to suspect that the culprits were some small negroes in the neighborhood. Especially did he suspect one bright ebony-hued boy named Rastus. The farmer accused him several times of being the guilty one, but each time he denied it so stoutly that he was not punished. One evening on returning to his home the farmer found Rastus sitting in the doorway with a skunk which he had captured, clasped tightly in his arms. The odor which filled the vicinity was unmistakable and penetrating. Rastus, seeing the farmer approaching, ran towards him eagerly, shouting: "Mistah Jeems, I'se cotch the chap what's bin stealin' yer onions. Whew!"

Big Beauty Show.

This Thursday evening theatre goers will have an opportunity of seeing one of the most widely known amusement attractions on the road at the present time. Ward Kelly's a Big Lady Minstrels have appeared before packed houses throughout the United States and Canada. Bellefonte is fortunate indeed to receive a visit from this talented organization. Mr. Kelly has surrounded himself with a strong company, every one of whom is a star. A wealth of beautiful costumes is carried by the company.

Services in the Lutheran Church this Week.

Rev. C. L. McConnell, pastor of the Lutheran church of Mifflinburg, will preach every night this week except Saturday, for Dr. Holloway, in the Lutheran church.

Mr. McConnell is one of the prominent ministers of that denomination, and an interesting preacher. We hope he will be greeted by large congregations, for we know everyone will enjoy his sermons.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Interesting Business Sessions, Forceful Sermons and Earnest Worship.

Saturday afternoon's session of the conference was not lagging in interest. The Mutual Benefit association met in the social hall of the church at 2 and the routine business was transacted, and a number of practical addresses were made intended to arouse interest in the young men of the conference, especially those who are to be admitted on trial at this session of the conference.

The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society was held at the same hour in the auditorium, which was packed to the doors. Mrs. B. C. Conner presided. The principal address was made by Rev. James M. Thoburn, of Allegheny.

One of the greatest meetings was that of Saturday night, the occasion being the anniversary of the missionary society. Rev. S. O. Benton, in a very entertaining manner took the audience on an imaginary missionary journey around the world. The second speaker was the Rev. J. Wesley Hill, D. D., pastor of Grace church, Harrisburg, who in a masterly address swayed the vast congregation with his eloquence. The last address was made by Rev. Dr. Leonard, who has had great experience in the study of missionary plans, needs and work.

LAYMEN'S MEETING.

There were 250 members of the Laymen's association at the meeting Saturday in the First United Brethren church of Altoona. The greetings of the laymen of the Altoona churches were conveyed to the association by W. H. Schwartz in a few well chosen words of hearty welcome, and by W. L. Woodcock in a more extended address. The address of the president, Thomas W. Myton, of Huntingdon, which followed, was a concise and forcible statement of the present status of the association and of the needs of the church and the consequent demands upon the laymen as an organized body to further the work which God in His wisdom is opening out for us. The reports of the officers were read, all of which were encouraging, and finally the officers for this year were elected as follows:

President, H. C. White, Chambersburg. Vice presidents, H. B. Powell, Clearfield; J. A. Affleck, Harrisburg; F. P. Llewellyn, Shamokin; William Lauder, Riddlesburg, and G. W. Hipple, Lock Haven. Secretary, R. A. Zentmyer, Tyrone. Assistant Secretary, J. S. Williams, Roaring Spring. Treasurer, K. M. King, Huntingdon. Executive Committee, the above and C. S. Russell, Curwensville; D. E. McClain, Saltillo; A. M. Foltz, Waynesboro; R. M. Tubbs, Shickshinny, and E. P. Moon, Montoursville.

MONDAY MORNING.

A large amount of business, all of routine character, was transacted at the morning session. At 10:30 o'clock the conference in executive session considered the cases of the candidates for admission on trial and for advancement in their course of study. The following were admitted on trial: J. Howard Ake, J. M. Brennan, J. E. A. Bucke, M. H. Gottschall, J. Victor Royer and Ivan L. Snyder. The following from the first year class were advanced to the studies of second year: Frank G. Bell, Charles W. Bryner, Martin C. Flegal, Jas. McK. Reiley, E. E. Sponsler, J. R. Woodcock, Amos M. Bruce and Frank W. Rohrer.

A pleasant incident of the morning was the fraternal call of the Altoona Ministerial association in a body. The president, Rev. Mr. Hutchison, gave a happy address of greeting, to which Bishop Cranston replied appropriately and fraternally.

At Monday afternoon's session of the conference Rev. Dr. D. S. Monroe presided. Routine business was transacted, consisting in the reading and adoption of reports made by the various committees. The report of the committee on church extension was read. Since 1866 there has been collected and disbursed $7,748,781.24. Last year collections in the church aggregated $95,263.46, of which $3,229 was contributed by this conference. The amount asked for this year is $8,500. If this amount is raised, our needy churches may receive back upon application $1,350.

The committee on Freedman's Aid society, in their report, said: "This society stands for the progress of the church and the safety of the republic, through the redemption of the 10,000,000 black people and 3,000,000 poor white people of the south To carry on this great work, the society sustains forty-six Christian colleges, seminaries and academies distributed throughout the sixteen southern states. Last year there were 10,239 students, 3,569 of them in the manual training and industrial schools. In a little more than a third of a century the society has trained 2,000 ministers, 500 physicians, 10,000 teachers and a total of 200,000 students, few of whom could otherwise have had any school privileges."

The report of Rev. Dr. W. O. Stephens of the Twentieth Century Thank Offering, shows that since Jan. 1, 1899, Altoona district has secured in cash subscriptions for the payment of church indebtedness on property, $54,387; Danville district, $45,301; Harrisburg, $65,262, Juniata, $30,487; Williamsport, $54,086. The report shows that the aggregate for church debts, designated and undesignated objects, is $343,989.52.

The report of the conference treasurer shows that the contributions for missions is $54,717, a gain over last year of $3,600; church extension, $3,229; Freedman's Aid, 3,393; conference claimants, $8,140; tracts, $480; Sunday School union, $527; Bible society, $505; education, children's fund, $2,852, public education collection, $1,504; Woman's Foreign Missionary society, $5,511; Woman's Home missions, $4.827; other benevolences, $1,782; general conference expenses, $663; episcopal fund, $2,797; a total of $89,931.

The statistical secretary made his report, the totals of which show the following figures: Probationers, 5,667 full members, 64,386; infant baptisms, 2,622, adults, 1,438; deaths, 761; number of churches, 621; valuation, $3,482,000; number of parsonages, 207; valuation, $511,905; amount paid on building and improving, $261,075; paid on old indebtedness, $236,610; pastoral support, $199,816; house rent, $133,444; total support including salaries and house rent, $233,160; deficiencies in salary, $6,039, paid to presiding elders, $12,850; to bishops, $2,789; conference claimants from collections, $8,193, from other sources, $364, total, $8.557, number of local preachers, 128; number of Sunday schools, 621; officers and teachers, 9,289; scholars of all ages, 69,441; expense of Sunday schools, 621; officers and teachers, 9,289; scholars of all ages, 69,441; expense of Sunday schools, $28,593; current expense of churches, sexton, light, fuel, etc., $57,745.

At the evening session Rev. M. L. Ganoe presided over a meeting of the Preachers' Aid society. The first speaker was Rev. W. M. Frysinger who said the members of this conference have subscribed $35,000 and we have prospectively $25,000 more which will make the splendid sum of $60.000 for this fund. He also spoke complimentary of Rev. George Stevens and four others, who have pledged themselves to raise $1,000. Let us have fifteen others who will do likewise and this fund will rise to $80,000.

The second and last speaker of the evening was the Rev. Dr. B. B. Hamlin, who is now 80 years old but still full of vigor. He began by saying Methodist is a strong reality, a headstrong, stubborn fact, and closed his forceful address with a strong plea for the better care of the minister of the gospel, who gives his whole life to the cause of Christ. His appeal for the annuity fund was strong and should bring pratical fruit in a perceptible increase in bequests and appropriations to this worthy cause.

The following appointments of ministers in the Central Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal conference territory were announced by Bishop Cranstom at the closing session.

The Mite Society Last Night.

The lecture room of the Methodist church was crowded, we might say jammed, last night to witness the entertainment given by the ladies of the Mite society, assisted by the Primary department, and we are sure there was no one present who did not enjoy it to the full.

The first part of the program was by the children, sweet little Misses, who performed their parts with great credit, and clean faced boys who went through the "German Band" performance like old stagers. The doll song by the little girls was very pretty. The following took part:

Mary Osmer, Mildred Johnston, Ruth Bartley, Stella Rightnour, Katherine Bullock, Katherine Love, Helen Eckenroth, Margaret Bullock, Helen McClure, Grace Gentzel, Bessie Gehret, Sarah Shuey, Bessie Showers, Maud Bullock, Margaret Barnhart, Sarah Hastings, Anna Shuey, Hazel Johnson, Paul Rumberger, Ferron Robb, John Love, Frederick Clemson, Harry Gentzel, Walter McClellan, Harvey Smith, Harold Gardner, Mulford Smith, Harris Olewine, Harry Nearhood, Dan'l Clemson, Ralph Struble, Willis Struble, Harold Ward, Hazel Thompson.

Part second was by the aged members of the congregation, those who for many years have "borne the heat and burden of the day" in working for the church, and whose declining years were made happy by appearing on the stage as they had done in times away back in the past, long, long ago. We must confess, they entered into the spirit of the occasion as though unmindful of their many infirmities, natural to those who have attained such great age.

The first act was a business meeting to arrange for a church fair, which was certainly amusing and created great applause. It was decidedly realistic, and a vivid picture of how ladies transact business.

Those taking part were Mrs. Henry P. Harris, Mrs. John G. Love, Mrs. J. M. Ward, Mrs. James K. Barnhart, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. John I. Olewine, Mrs. George Grimm, Mrs. L. P. Lonsbury, Mrs. F. W. Crider, Misses Marie Meek and Elizabeth Faxon. Their "get up", or more appropriately, their apparel, was beyond description, some of the styles dating back several centuries, and the vintage of every year since then. We wondered where they unearthed all the ancient plumage, and their hats and bonnets were creations of—no, they could not have been created, they must have simply come—they were marvels of taste and skill; we venture to say that Katz & Co. never produced anything so startling.

After two or three scraps, the meeting opened with Mrs. Harris in the chair and Miss Faxon as secretary; roll of members called; the minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Then the fun commenced: Motions were made; amendments offered; the previous question called; tidy pattern shown; recipe for sweet pickles given; each one wanting the fair on the day which suited them best: a few acrimonious remarks; but why dwell longer on the proceedings—it was just such a meeting as one would expect—nothing accomplished, no date for the fair, three or four in bad humor, and a hasty adjournment to go home and get supper.

This was followed by a child's motion song, each old lady wearing something white around her shoulders, and a white cap. The singing was fine and their actions graceful, in fact, we do not think younger voices could have sounded sweeter. The song carried us back to childhood days and brought forth many tender recollections.

It was certainly one of the most pleasant entertainments we have ever attended, and our only regret was, that it was too short.

Miss Grieb, church organist, played the accompaniments on the piano and also rendered a beautiful instrumental solo.

Coffee, ice cream and cake were served later in the evening from which a handsome sum was realized.

Mrs. Olewine, Mrs. Grimm and Mrs. Ward had the distinctive honor of being the recipients of beautiful and costly bouquets, the gifts of admiring friends.

Mrs. Edward Poorman Hurt.

On Thursday, Mrs. Edward Poorman visited her brother John Grove who lives along the Boalsburg pike. She was returning to her home, which is four miles East of town on the Jacksonville road, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and when near the curve of the road a short distance from the Valentine home, the Lewisburg freight, frightened her horse which immediately ran away, dragging the buggy and its occupant over a steep embankment twenty five feet high. Mrs. Poorman was very badly hurt. Besides three very large scalp wounds, she was cut and bruised all over her body. She was conveyed to Dr. R. G. H. Hayes hospital where her injuries are being properly treated. The buggy was broken to pieces and the horse badly hurt.

A Serious Accident.

Tuesday evening a young man named Harry Miller who is employed at the Mill Hall Axe Works was horribly if not fatally injured, near the Beech Creek passenger Station at Mill Hall.

The young man was on his way home to supper and stepped from the R. R. track to let a train pass and did not notice an engine coming in the same direction which struck him, knocking him under the wheels of the train cutting off both legs. He was at once removed to the Lock Haven Hospital.

Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected.

The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely overcome by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

which strengthens the whole digestive system

MR. HAY WARNS CUBA

Slightest Amendment to Reciprocity Treaty Will Defeat It.

FOREIGN INFLUENCES AT WORK

Endeavoring to Defeat Ratification By Attacking Amendments—Three Separate Reports On Treaty In Cuban Senate.

Washington, March 28.—Secretary Hay has sent a warning to Cuba that the slightest amendment of the Cuban reciprocity treaty by the Cuban congress, even that which proposes to make its ratification conditional on the treaty going into effect during the current calendar year, certainly would defeat the convention itself, since any amendment must be submitted to the United States senate, and before that can be done the date fixed for the final exchange of ratifications, March 31, will have been passed. Mr. Squiers, the United States minister at Havana, has transmitted this note to the Cuban foreign minister, and he is hopeful that it will be sufficient to curb the desire to amend the treaty.

It is fully realized here that foreign influences in Havana, which would be affected injuriously by the treaty, are working upon Cuban pride to defeat the ratification by attaching amendments to the treaty. This was fully expected, and is regarded as within the legitimate duties of diplomatic representatives in such cases, but it is believed that the effort will prove unsuccessful.

Three Reports On Treaty.

Havana, March 28.—Three separate reports on the reciprocity treaty with the United States were presented to the senate yesterday afternoon by the foreign relations committee. One, signed by the chairman, Senor Bustamente; the president of the senate, Senor Capote, and by Senator Dolz, recommended the approval of all the amendments adopted by the United States senate. Senor Zayas presented a report against the ratification on account of the action of the United States senate in confining the 20 per cent. reduction on the duty on Cuban sugar to the basis of the tariff rates in the law of 1897.

Senor Tamayo submitted the third and adverse report upon all the amendments. Both the minority reports were rejected by the senate. The majority report will be discussed today, and it is expected that it will be approved by a small majority. Its provision requiring the adoption of the treaty by the United States congress before December 1, however, is generally believed to be fatal to the treaty, since the acceptance by the United States senate of this provision is impossible.

President Palma had a two-hour conference at the palace yesterday with the entire foreign relations committee of the Cuban senate, at which every endeavor was made to take definite action in regard to the limit of time in which the reciprocity treaty is to become effective. The minority, however, persisted in its opposition. Of the three majority senators on the committee, Senors Capote and Dolse appeared willing to ratify the treaty without the time limit condition, provided Chairman Bustamente, the chairman, would consent; but the latter as obdurate.

President Palma and Senor Zaldo, secretary of foreign affairs, offered to inform the United States government officially that the treaty would be ratified on the understanding that it would be operative by the date desired, but Senor Bustamente insisted that it should be made a legal condition of acceptance.

All three of the majority senators persisted in the belief that the time limit condition would not damage the ultimate ratification of the treaty itself.

President Palma and his cabinet believe the majority of the senate will adopt the committee's majority report.

Beef Trust Heavily Fined.

The Supreme Court of Missouri handed down a decision in the Beef Trust case. The Armour Cudahy, Swift, Hammond and Schwartzschild & Sulzberger Packing Companies are each ordered to pay a fine of $5000 and cost of $5000. Unless fines and costs are paid within thirty days, the defendants, by the order of the court, will be outsted from the state.

The fine should be twenty times as heavy for the millions the beef lords have taken off the public.

DREADFUL ATTACK OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Mrs. Ellen Harlison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. C. M. Parrish.

—Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and will not constipate like nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse subetitutes. C. M. Parrish.

MRS. EYLER WILL NOT RESIGN

Matron of New Jersey Home For Girls Will Fight All Comers.

Trenton, N. J., March 30.—It is said that Mrs. Myrtle B. Eyler, matron of the State Home for Girls, will be asked to resign at the next meeting of the board of managers on Wednesday. The managers refuse to talk concerning the reports of cruel treatment of the inmates of the home. They are anxious to settle the trouble by avoiding, if possible, another legislative investigation.

Friends of Mrs. Eyler who know her disposition say that she will not resign under fire. Possessed of rare courage, she will fight any and all comers. She believes that she is thoroughly competent to run the home, and points to the fact that the legislative committee that hauled the institution over the coals two years ago decided in her favor.

It was learned that the managers had discovered that the straitjacket had not been used commonly for the punishment of refractory girls since the investigation, but that the chain and leather anklet had been brought into use again. These anklets were among the first things that the new board asked to have put aside, the order being simultaneous with directions to destroy the cellar dungeons.

Since the five girls escaped recently there has been little discipline in the home. It has been necessary to lock the girls in their rooms immediately after their meals, and they amuse themselves by raising their wire-screened windows and shouting to each other sarcastic comments on the management of the home.

G. F. SWIFT IS DEAD

Famous Packer Passes Away at His Chicago Home.

Chicago, March 30. — Gustavus Franklin Swift, president of the Swift Packing Company, died at his home on Ellis avenue early yesterday, of internal hemorrhages, resulting from a surgical operation performed several days ago. Mr. Swift was 63 years of age.

Gustavus Franklin Swift began his business career as a butcher, and died leaving a fortune estimated at from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000. This fortune was made in the course of 45 years. Mr. Swift was not only the oldest packer at the time of his death, but he was the originator of the method that has made many fortunes. From the small plant started in 1877 has developed a great corporation, with branches in St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha, St. Paul and Fort Worth, Tex., and with distributing offices in every important city and town in the United States, and with representatives in the leading cities of Europe, Asia and Africa. Its employes number 22,607. Upon its capital stock of $25,000,000 the sales of 1902 exceeded $200,000,000.

HARDWARE STORE IN STOMACH

Boy Had Swallowed Six Pounds of Nails and Other Articles.

Kalamazoo, Mich., March 30.—Six pounds of nails, screws, lead, iron, cartridge shells and other foreign substances were taken from the stomach of Fred Cerrow, a Michigan Asylum patient, during the post-mortem examination held Saturday. For years Cerrow had walked about swallowing metal, lumps of coal, small stones and brickdust with great avidity. Now dead, his body furnishes physicians with one of the most remarkable cases on record. The stomach contained the following articles: One 20-penny spike, four inches long; 32 ten-penny nails, 79 eight-penny nails, 23 shingle nails, 180 bent nails of various assorted sizes, 29 pieces of wire, different sizes; one iron washer, 1¼ inches in diameter; four suspender clasps, 17 buttons, 126 small stones, 12 pieces of tin, three screws, three 32-calibre cartridge shells and 28 pins.

Safe Blowers Get $1,200.

Springfield, Mass., March 30.—Safe blowers broke into the big grocery store of Rood & Woodbury in this city yesterday morning. They obtained $1,200 and escaped. The store is in Main street, near the heart of the business section, and the burglary was a bold one. Entrance was obtained by the burglars through an ice chute in the rear. The front door keyholes were found plugged with wood to prevent the quick use of keys from the outside. The safe door was drilled, and the rest was easy. Every cent of money in the store was taken.

CUBA ACCEPTS TREATY

Result of Promise by President Roosevelt to Call Extra Session.

TIME LIMIT DISPENSED WITH

The Treaty Was Saved From Almost Certain Defeat By Message From Secretary Hay—Opposition Fear Absorption by United States.

Havana, March 30.—The treaty of reciprocity between Cuban and the United States was approved at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the Cuban senate by a vote of 12 to 9. This approval is absolute, and is not hampered by any conditions, the questionable time limit amendment having been dispensed with after the receipt of a message from Secretary Hay, in which it was positively declared that President Roosevelt would call a special session of congress prior to December 1.

The purport of this assurance was transmitted to the senate by President Palma and read at the beginning of the session, an understanding having been reached previously with Senators Bustamente, Capote and Dolz, composing the majority of the foreign relations committee, that the objectionable condition in the report be eliminated.

Final action was delayed for a long time by the discussion of an amendment offered by Senators Sanguilly, Tamayo and Recio, requiring the house to pass upon the treaty. Senator Sanguilly argued that while the constitution was not explicit upon this point, that the represenatives in congress of the people ought to be consulted as well as the commercial interests, whose opinions the committee had sought eagerly. He cited the actions of the United States, and said Cuba was afraid that the treaty would be defeated if submitted to the house. Senator Dolz admitted that this was a good reason, and quoted the constitution to show that reference to the house was not required.

Senator Sanguilly, in a long and impassioned speech against the ratification of the treaty, impressively pictured the gradual absorption of Cuba by the United States, in which he said the present action was one step. He argued that it was practically disgraceful for Cuba to be a party to such a scheme. The speaker's wit and eloquence caused occasional bursts of approving applause from the spectators, and when he concluded he was greeted with a roar of applause, in which all the senators joined.

The amendment requiring the house to pass on the treaty was defeated by a vote of 5 to 15.

The vote was taken separately on each section of the substitute report. The vote on the unconditional ratification of the treaty was 12 to 9; on the recommendation to the executive it was 11 to 9.

The present session of the senate then adjourned. The ratifications will be exchanged by cable.

United States Minister Squiers said: "The ratification of the treaty without amendment is due almost entirely to the assurances given by President Roosevelt that he will call an extra session of congress before December 1. This action of the president will be appreciated and accepted by the Cuban government and people as an additional evidence of the most sincere friendship and interest on the part of a man in whom they have ever had unbounded faith and confidence."

GERMAN-AMERICANS PROTEST

Pass Resolutions Condemning Dewey For Remarks About Kaiser's Navy.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 30. — Delegates of the western branch of the German-American Alliance of Pennsylvania yesterday passed the following resolution, which was called forth by remarks attributed to Admiral Dedew concerning the German navy:

"Resolved, That the recent disparaging and uncalled-for remarks of Admiral Dewey about the German navy was, if the press has quoted him correctly, unworthy of a naval officer of his rank. Coupled as his undiplomatic statement was, with a eulogy of Great Britain's friendship for America, it would seem that the admiral's discourtesy to Germany was prompted rather by social prejudices than by true patriotism.

"A composite people like our own is bound by congenial and cultured ties to Germany no less than to England. To needlessly offend a people to whom we are closely related, and to whom we owe so much, must arouse the disapproval of every fair-minded American, and as true Americans we should endeavor to understand and appreciate the various factors that have contributed to our civilization. It is a menace to our land to have our national issues depend upon men whose visions are clouded by racial prejudice. In military and naval affairs the judgment of such a man cannot be relied upon, because he is unable to ascertain our own weakness and the real strength of a foreign nation."

POPE WILL HOLD CONSISTORY

Nothing Yet Decided as to Nomination of New Cardinals.

Rome, March 30.—The Pope has expressed his intention of holding a consistory at the end of April or the beginning of May, a consistory being especially necessary for the appointment of bishops. Nothing has yet been decided as to the nomination of new cardinals, and there may be none. Even if some cardinals are created, there is nothing definite in regard to foreigners.

The cardinals of the Congregation of the Propaganda has been informed that a meeting will be held on April 6, at which the appointments of coadjutor bishops of St. Louis and Cincinnati will be discussed and confirmed. Bishop Hogan, of Kansas City, is almost sure to be appointed coadjutor archbishop of St. Louis, upon which post Cardinal Satolli will report. Regarding the Cincinnati appointment, on which Cardinal Martinellli will make a report, there is some competition between Bishop Moeller, of Columbus, O., and Bishop Maes, of Covington, Ky. It is believed that the former has the better chance, especially as his appointment is preferred by Archbishop Elder.

MACDONALD'S WIDOW OBDURATE

Insists General's Funeral Take Place Early In the Morning.

London, March 30.—The despatch of the remains of Major General Macdonald, who committed suicide in Paris, to Scotland last night by train was the occasion for a remarkable demonstration, owing to the fact that his widow has decided that the burial shall take place at 6 o'clock in the morning, immediately after the arrival of the body at Edinburgh. Hundreds of Scotchmen, representing the Highland societies, and several Scotch members of parliament, gathered on the platform at the King's Cross Railway station here. Most of the Scotchmen wore their national costumes, wreaths were placed on the coffin in the name of the different clans, and the pipers played national dirges as the body was entrained.

All attempts to persuade the widow to delay the interment and permit the Highlanders to arrange for a national funeral in the Highlands having failed, a large number of influential Scotchmen adjourned to the hotel in the railway station and held a meeting of protest.

WOMAN'S STRANGE DEATH

Mrs. Wilson Found In Dying Condition On Newark Street.

Newark, N. J., March 30.—County Physician McKenzie yesterday held an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Cora Wilson, of Bloomfield, who was found unconscious at midnight Saturday in front of the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles L. Snow, and who died a few minutes later. It was believed at first that the woman had been murdered, as there was a frightful gash on her head several inches long and the skull was crushed. In consequence, Joseph Wilson, the husband of the woman, was arrested in Bloomfield a couple of hours later, but he proved to the satisfaction of the police that he had not been away from that town Saturday night.

Further investigation by the police leads them to believe that Mrs. Wilson fell out of a window, but the husband is being held pending the inquest.

A Rush of Immigrants.

New York, March 30.—Immigrant arrivals at Ellis Island yesterday broke all records for Sunday in the history of the harbor of New York. By nightfall, when Commissioner Williams' staff had sifted through the great mass brought in by the Philadelphia, the Campania, the Savioe and the Graf Waldersee, it was found that 4,569 men, women and children had passed through the chutes and were either speeding to their new homes or else awaiting further investigation in the "detention compartments." This is the beginning of the rush season for immigration, and this year's record is expected to exceed all others by many thousands.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

A SENSATIONAL RAID

Alleged New York Pool Room Cunningly Fortified and Guarded.

OFFICERS CHOP WAY INTO ROOM

While Detectives Held Men at Bay With Revolvers, Others Cut Hole Through Floor Above and Dropped Through.

New York, March 28.—In effecting an entrance into an alleged pool room in the basement of a six-story business building on West Third street yesterday, two detectives were forced to chop a hole through the floor in the rear room of a saloon and drop into the room below, where other detectives were holding the men inside at bay with their revolvers. William Daly, said to be the proprietor, and a dozen others were arrested.

The raid was a sensational one. According to the story told by the police the place was cunningly fortified and guarded. An elaborate system of signals had to be given by several sentries before a would-be bettor could gain entrance to the room. Pocket telephones, electric buttons, "buzzers," secret slides and a "maze" figure in the story. When the visitor finally satisfied the sentry that he was all right he was passed along to a room, the door of which was immediately bolted. There were five of these rooms leading directly into the alleged pool room, and in some of the enclosures there were three or four doors built to bewilder an invading party.

Detective Sergeants Kerr and Fogarty, disguised as truck drivers, had frequently visited the place, where they claim to have placed bets on the races at Bennings. They were there yesterday when Detective Sergeants Vallely and Collins, dressed as laborers, entered the cafe, which is an elaborately decorated one. Vallely had a crowbar and a sledge hammer. Each carried a "jimmy." They went at once to the rear room. There they arrested the outer sentries, and while one detective watched the prisoners the other battered down a door

As soon as the blows were heard in the inner room, Kerr and Fogarty drew their revolvers, and, backing to a corner, covered the crowd.

Meanwhile Vallely, after battering down one door came to a second. This, though built of oak, soon gave way, and the detectives found themselves in a room which had three doors. Cutting through one of these doors, the detectives and their prisoners entered another room, which also had three doors. They were in the "maze."

It was then that the detectives decided to go up stairs to the rear of the saloon, where Vallely cut through the floor. Several policemen, who had been attracted to the place by this time, watched the prisoners, while Vallely and Collins and a uniformed policeman dropped through the hole into the alleged pool room.

Those arrested besides the alleged proprietor were his alleged manager and employes. The others found in the place were allowed to go.

HEARS OF HER OWN FUNERAL

Body of Suicide Had Been Identified As That of Another Woman.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 28.—Mrs. Martin Brennan, whose sudden disappearance from her home in this city was involved in much mystery, was found in Scranton and brought back home. She had been mourned as dead by her family.

The body of Mrs. Peter Mathews, who committed suicide by jumping into the Susquehanna river, was identified as that of Mrs. Brennan, and funeral services were being held over the body at the Brennan home when a woman identified the corpse as that of her sister, Mrs. Peter Mathews.

Labor Troubles In Massachusetts.

Boston, Mass., March 28.—In the last three months the state of Massachusetts has passed through a period of strikes, agitations and suspensions that is almost unprecedented. Many disputes have come up within a few weeks, some of which have not yet reached a settlement, but many more are in store for the immediate future. In Boston alone no less than 25 different unions have presented demands for an increase in wages and shorter hours, which if not granted will end in many strikes.

Hanged For Robbery.

Birmingham, Ala., March 28.—Will Dorsey, colored, was hanged here yesterday for highway robbery, it being the first instance in the state's history where the death penalty has been imposed for this crime. He entered the home of David McNamara, a mine operator near Pratt Mines, three years and and shot down McNamara and robbed the place. McNamara, though badly wounded, recovered.

Lettuce and Small-Pox.

Everyone likes lettuce, and some of us get it most of the year round. Lobster, chicken and all other kinds of salad must be embellished by it. In summer every garden has a bed of it and in winter the greenhouse produces it. We simply eat it because we like it and never think of its medicinal qualities. Now arises a physician with the assertion that anyone who eats lettuce every day will never get small-pox. Small-pox belongs to the scorbutic class of diseases, like scurvy, and so sailors and soldiers deprived of common vegetables are afflicted with these diseases. Small-pox rages in winter, not because it is inherently a cold weather diseases, but because at that season of the year poor people must go short, or almost entirely on fresh vegetable foods. Celery and onions are good for this purpose, but there is such a long interval between their being gathered and being eaten that they lose most of their anti-scorbutic properties. Lettuce is served shortly after it is picked and hence contains the valuable properties which will prevent small-pox. After stating the above as his premises the learned physician draws this conclusion, which is suggestive: "We say without the least hesitation or reserve that lettuce will prevent small-pox. It is a thousand times better than vaccination. It has no liabilities, like vaccination, to produce other diseases. We are willing to stake our professional reputation on the broad statement that anyone who eats lettuce daily will not catch small-pox, whether he be vaccinated or not." We give this for what it is worth and not to boom the lettuce market. Let us eat the plant because we like it and not forget vaccination in the interim. Some time ago it was stated that lemon juice would prevent and cure typhoid fever. There is some truth in this, but not enough to be practical. Fad notions never produce permanent results.

The Teachers' Institute Will Meet in Bellefonte as Usual.

Editrix Anna V. Williams has conceived the idea that it would be the proper "caper" to have the Teachers' Institute hold its next session at Philipsburg, and announces in The Ledger that the matter is about finally settled.

It is probably settled as far as The Ledger is concerned, but as yet the returns are not all in. There are several hundred teachers and school directors who are to be heard from, and when they learn that an effort is being made to compel them to travel to the extreme end of the county, to the highest pinnacle of the Allegheny mountains, in the coldest season of the year, and the uncertainty of securing comfortable quarters, there will be such a protest sent to County Superintendent Gramley that he cannot resist.

We are sorry that Philipsburg is geographically situated as to make the thing impossible, but Bellefonte is the proper place, being in the centre of the county, easy of access, a comfortable and commodious room for holding the Institute, and abundance of good hotel accommodations for everyone.

How Coal Was First Named.

Curiously, the word coal was in use long before as well as long after the commencement of the coal trade, with a meaning quite different from that which it now has. The term originally belonged to wood fuel and was applied in particular to wood which had been charred, or what is now called charcoal.

When the trade in mineral coal began, this was usually distinguished by the singular name of sea coal. It would seem that from having been gathered in early times on the seashore, more especially of Northumberland, along with seaweed and other wreckage cast up by the waves, this peculiar substance was supposed to be of marine origin. From this circumstance and its resemblance to wood coal in color and burning properties it obtained the name of sea coal, by which it was so long and so widely known. Then in the course of time, as the new fuel gained upon and superseded the old, the simple name of coal became universally transferred to it.

Queer English Custom.

Persons aspiring to become bailiff at Alnwick, England, have to go through a curious and somewhat unpleasant ordeal.

Before the election the various candidates ride up in a body to a horse pond and, there dismounting from their steeds, plunge into the water and struggle as best they may to the other side. The music of a brass band cheers them during their struggles in the dirty water.

This ancient custom dates from the reign of King John, who once paid a visit to the town in 1210 and found no fitting welcome prepared for him. The blame of this state of unpreparedness was fastened on the luckless bailiffs, who were promptly thrown into the horse pond by royal command.

Denial Week.

We all like occasionally to think that we know something about the spirit of self-denial, of renunciation, but the Salvation Army "goes us one better" in having brought that spirit to a world-wide practical system. During its annual Week of Prayer and Self-Denial, now approaching, this mighty organization for the uplifting of the fallen, the comfort of the cheerless and the salvation of all men gives itself up to a study, systematic abnegation and self-sacrifice, that when one considers how largely these elements enter into the every-day life of these enthusiastic workers for good, rather put the rest of us to blush.

The Army is not selfish, however. That is an accusation that now in its most misunderstood days one does not remember to have heard brought against it. It gives its friends an opportunity to share in its labors and in the reward that always follows the consciousness of a right deed done.

The dates set for this year's Week of Prayer and Self-Denial are April 5th to 12th. inclusive. During that period every Salvationist in the land will practice the most rigid self-abnegation, gladly yielding the proceeds for the extension of the Army work. Friends of the Army—all who are believers in the gospel of going about doing good are invited to take part in this effort, and as there are few people, indeed, in this vicinity who are not friends of this splendid organization, this paper ventures the prophecy that there will be a general acceptance of this invitation.

Deceit.

Deceit, even if spoken or acted to do good, rarely ever attains its object; for when found out as it is sure to be sooner or later, the person that made use of it is about as worthy of respect and homage as those of old time coast wreckers that lit their beacon fires to lure ships and lives to destruction; for where is anything more despicable or contemptible than the words that are neither affirmative nor negative? It is very much the same as passing through an apple orchard. The fruit looks fair and tempting, but on picking one you can perceive on testing it that a canker worm has eaten the heart out of it and left nothing but the shell to deceive the unwary. So it is with many faces; they look fair and true to the eye, but the canker worm of deceit and falsehood lurks beneath many smiling faces and words.—Ex.

Reduced Rates to New Orleans.

On account of the meeting of the National Manufacturers' Association at New Orleans, April 15 to 17, the Pennsylvania Railroad company will sell excursion tickets to New Orleans and return April 11. 12 and 13, good going on date of sale, and good returning to reach original starting point not later than April 19, from all points on its lines, at reduced rates. By depositing ticket with Joint Agent at New Orleans between April 12 and 19, and payment of fee of fifty cents, an extension of return limit may be obtained to reach starting point not later than April 30.

Dampen Your Dusters.

Just here comes the report of a new eye disease which has appeared and which physicians claim is contracted from house dirt. If the dust cloth is slightly dampened when dusting picture mouldings, the top of high cabinets, china closets, etc., when daily dusting has been omitted, it will take up the accumulation of disease laden microbes without allowing them to scatter through the room. A cloth dampened with kerosene will also collect the dust in rolls and effectually prevent its dissemination.

Early Peaches Frozen.

David Charters, a well known fruit grower of the Juniata valley peach belt, states that he has made an examination of fruit and finds some of the peaches are frozen, but not all of them. From examination he believes the majority of the early peaches are frozen, and the late variety will make half a crop. The cherries he finds are all right and there will be a good crop of them. From investigation he does not believe the ice on the trees injured the cherries or apples.

Missionaries Thrown into Prison.

"Deacon John," and John Gregory, Armenian missionaries, were arrested in Lewistown and sent to the county prison by Chief of Police Sankey, on complaint of the Huntingdon, Pa., authorities, who charged them with soliciting money under false pretense. The missionaries hold letter of recommendation from prominent churchmen in various cities and had collected considerable money before their arrest.

A New Bunco Game.

An exchange says a new bunco game is being worked on unwary merchants throughout the country. A man enters the store, displays a government badge and states that he is in the secret service and on the lookout for counterfeit money. He looks over the cash drawer and invariably finds four or five "counterfeit" dollars which he "confiscates." The whole thing is a fraud."

Cornstalk Paper.

American farmers and newspaper men are very likely to become joint beneficiaries of a great scheme of co-operation in making the most of the corn crop. Not of the grain merely, but of the whole plant, stalks, leaves, pith, tassels, husks, cobs and kernels After a long course of experimentation, carried on at Kankakee, Ill., under the encouragement of the National Agricultural department, it is found that high grade paper can be profitably manufactured, in different varieties from various parts of the plant. One kind is made from the hard shell of the stalk, another from the pith, and the third from the husk. "From the pith is turned out the finest oil paper, almost equal to linen paper," so it is claimed by experts at the department.

A machine has been invented, and is now being manufactured, which will take the cornstalk, with the ear still on it, husk the ear, separate the husk from the stalk, and then remove the shell from the stalk. Sending this machine into the fields, the paper manufacturers will propose to farmers to buy their corn crops as they stand in the fields. If the farmers wish the corn after it has been husked, it will be passed back to them; otherwise it will be marketed by the owner of the machine, who will convert every remaining part of the plant into some form of manufacture.

The Striking Resemblance.

There was in Washington a few years ago an old negro who was noted for his recollections of all the famous statesmen of ante-bellum days. To him one day came a rather pompous member of a comparatively recent Congress, who resembled some of the famous forensic giants of old only in his capacity for ardent spirits. He had his customary cargo aboard and was inclined to be colloquial. So he addressed the old negro patronizingly:

"Uncle Daniel, I understand that you used to know Webster, Clay, Calhoun and all the celebrated statesmen of before-the-war times."

"Oh yas, suh; I 'members dem all," responded the old negro.

"Well, Daniel, I have been told that I look like Daniel Webster. Can you see any resemblance?"

"Well, yas, suh; yo' does 'mind me pow'ful of Mars Webster in some respecks."

"Indeed! In what particulars do I remind you of Daniel Webster," inquired the now thoroughly flattered statesman.

"Mos'ly in de bref, suh," responded Daniel; "mos'ly in de bref."

Circumstantial Evidence.

Last spring a truck farmer who raised large quantities of onions for the market was very much annoyed by having the beds torn up and plundered again and again. He had good reason to suspect that the culprits were some small negroes in the neighborhood. Especially did he suspect one bright ebony-hued boy named Rastus. The farmer accused him several times of being the guilty one, but each time he denied it so stoutly that he was not punished. One evening on returning to his home the farmer found Rastus sitting in the doorway with a skunk which he had captured, clasped tightly in his arms. The odor which filled the vicinity was unmistakable and penetrating. Rastus, seeing the farmer approaching, ran towards him eagerly, shouting: "Mistah Jeems, I'se cotch the chap what's bin stealin' yer onions. Whew!"

A Valuable Relic.

Dr. Sumner Musser of Aaronsburg, Centre county, brought to Bellefonte an oldtime sickle and presented it to Dr. H. C. Holloway, pastor of the Lutheran church, which he now prizes very highly. It has small teeth, something like a saw, and really is quite a curiosity. The sickle has cut into the handle the name of John Holloway, father of Dr. Holloway, and just below it is cut 1830, making the sickle 73 years old. This instrument is in good condition and was found in an old granary that was torn down recently in Aaronsburg which was built by Mr. Holloway many years ago, before he moved to Ohio in 1856. It is evident that Mr. Holloway had been using the sickle and just laid it above the granary and it lay there for fifty years untouched.

Beauty is born in the blood. Beauty is more than "skin deep." It is blood deep When the blood is tainted by disease the flesh will feel it and the skin will show it. Sallow or muddy complexion, pimples, blotches, and eruptions are only the surface signs of impure blood. Face washes, lotions, complexion powders, may palliate the evils but they cannot cure the disease. The only cure is to cleanse the blood of the poisonous matter which is the cause of the out break in the flesh and skin. Impure blood can be absolutely purified by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Its effect on flesh and skin is marked. Sores heal and disappear. The skin becomes smooth, and regains its natural color. The eyes brighten and sparkle, the whole body is radiant with the brightness and beauty of health. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, assists the action of the "Discovery," by cleansing the system of clogging matter.

—Lend, and the world laughs with you; borrow, and you borrow a loan.

—The best cure for the new suicide club just organized would be teetotalism.

—Some people have no more use for the truth than a tramp has for a bath robe.

—The fellow who owes you money usually feels insulted if you ask him for it.

—Nottingham, O., won for local option by a majority of 47, out of 241 votes cast.

—The liquor oligarchy of Brussels have issued a secret circular, calling for combined and vigorous action against all anti-alcoholic societies in the country.

—The Rev. William F. Shero Rector of St. John's church Lancaster, preached in St. John's Episcopal church Tuesday evening. Mr. Shero was formerly head master of Yeates institute Lancaster.

—The Delegates to the Womans Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church returned Friday from Huntingdon where they had been attending the annual meeting of that body.

—The late Doctor Gatlinz, who insisted that his famous rapid-fire gun was influential in shortening, if not in preventing war, was also interested in rapid-fire agricultural machinery. In his youth he invented drills for sowing cottonseed and grain.

—We were so fortunate Tuesday as to meet and become acquainted with four citizens of Centre county, whom we found to be intelligent and representative men of their several localities. They were Mr. David Reed and his two sons J. I. Reed and J. E. Reed of Pine Grove Mills and Mr. G. C. King of Spring Mills.

—Oscar Shank, of Howard, who met with the painful accident of having the ends of three of his fingers on the right hand cut off while at work at the Jenkins Tool factory, was in Bellefonte, Tuesday having the injured hand treated. Mr. Shank is a very pleasant young fellow and it is sincerely hoped he may not suffer any-more pain.

—Captain W. H. Fry, of Ferguson is a sort of a crank on the weather. Just now his "plaint" is that the ground-hog became obstreperous this spring and has twisted things up in his bailiwick, they do not know where they are at. He says that in Ferguson, they have no almanacs, and depend entirely on signs More particularly on his Lordship the Hog, and since he has failed them they are completely lost.

—The business men and fire men of Lock Haven held a meeting on Friday night, and decided to have a fourth of July celebration that will eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted in Central Pennsylvania. Committees have been appointed to formulate plans, raise money, and send out invitation. When Lock Haven makes up her mind to do any thing out of the ordinary, we may rest assured it will be a success.

—When the Fifty-eighth Congress meets in regular session next December, the presidential election will be the overshadowing topic of conversation and discussion. Unavoidable it will check legislative activity. Everybody will realize that by the time the session ends the nominating conventions will be assembling. In each presidential year the country thinks of what it is purposing to do, rather than of the things that are actually taking place.

—There was a slight "scrap" down town last Saturday night, between two chaps who had been taking more "booz" than they were able to manage. It did not result in any thing serious, one of them simply giving the other a pat on the eye which did no further damage than disfiguring him for a few days. We wish the police had been in the neigborhood to have arrested them, then we would have had the pleasure of reporting the hearing.

—Archibald Allison has so far recovered, that he can now go to his place of business a few hours each day. During the seven weeks he has been confined to the house, the neighbors were exceedingly kind in sending lots of good things for him to eat. As a result, his avoirdupois has increased to such an extent, that he is too big for his clothes. We would suggest that for the present, he borrow a suit from John Knisely for there is no doubt that, with plain home fare he will soon shrink to his normal shape and size.

—The oldest temperance book urging total abstinence from alcohol was published in 1622.

—The United Brethren Congregation is preparing an excellent entertainment to be given in the near future.

—Rain-in-the-face and Buffalo Bill are about the only citizens who have taste to appreciate our remodeled white house with its stuffed wild animals.

—It's the little colds that grow into big colds; the big colds that end in consumption and death. Watch the little colds. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

—When Rev. Dr. Laurie dons his shiny beaver and long tailed coat, he looks every inch a minister, and in addition presents a decidedly handsome appearance.

—Another case of smallpox developed in Huntingdon last Friday, the patient being Miss Maud Smith whose home is in Bedford county. She had been living in Huntingdon for some time. It is reported that she had recently made a trip to Pittsburg where it is supposed she contracted the disease.

—We are glad to note that our former friend Capt. S. H. Bennison of Abdera who was seriously injured some weeks ago by the overturning of a sled is recovering. The Captain had a close call, as he was pinned under the sled unable to extricate himself, in this position he remained over one hour until help came to his relief.

—The Passmore House, at Philipsburg, is being enlarged and otherwise improved. This is made necessary by the largely increased demand for accommodations. James Passmore the proprietor has made his house the most desired hotel in that town as the present changes would indicate. If a person stops there once they are sure to do so again.

—A New Orleans paper has the pleasant pratice ofgiving a loving-cup annually to the citizen who has performed the most noteworthy service to the community during theyear. It is significant that the society which awards the prize has adjudged it for the last two years to men who haveadvanced the educational development of the city.

—Mrs. Addie T. Aikens was in luck Tuesday. She received a check from the Berkshire Life Insurance Co., for $1012. the amount of an endowment policy she held in that company and which expired Monday. The Berkshire is represented by W. M. Furey of Pittsburg and a large amount of insurance is carried by Bellefonte citizens every one of whom are more than satisfied with the policy of the company.

—John S. Walker is carrying his hand in a sling, the result of a little mishap which occurred Thursday evening. He was invited by a friend to take dinner, and in the excitement and hurry of decorating himself, he became reckless, and instead of using the razor on his face, he tried it on his thumb, almost severing that member from the rest of his anatomy. It is needless to say he missed his dinner.

—On Friday evening, one of our ladies? was performing some high capers on one of the main streets of the town, and was told several times by the policmen to go home, which she did'nt do, when Officer Jodon arrested her and placed her in the lock-up to spend the balance of the night. It is a great pity something cannot be done with this young girl, so she could be taught to lead a different life.

—The Farmers Friend published by R. H. Thomas, at Mechanicsburg, and the Grange Trade Bullitin of Centre Hall have consolidated, and is now publish at Mechanicsburg, by R.H.Thomas and Hon. Leonard Rhone. We have before us, the first copy of the new paper. It is an eight page journal well edited and full of interesting information. Just such a paper as should take among the agriculturists of the country. We wish it abundant success.

—One effect of the Coal Strike last winter was to give a lesson of economy to the people of our country in the use of coal. Heretofore there has been a vast amount of extravagance in its consumption, but last winters experience taught us that we can be just as comfortable by paying more attention to our stoves and heaters. Manufacturers have also learned that careful firemen can save largely of this commodity. It is estimated that there will be millions of tons less coal consumed next winter than there would have been but for this lesson.

—If you can't offord to subscribe these "prosperous times" then borrow your neighbor's copy but don't object to the quality of the news in this department until you pay for it; then complain to the writer. If you don't want anything printed about your affairs, then do the right thing, for there is now a Marconi process of getting the news across our neighbors back fence by carrier pigeons and along clothes lines; even potatoes have eyes and corn has ears. We want news and must have it. If you know anything let us have it while it is fresh; don't tell us of a marriage after the bride and groom have gone to housekeeping and had the first "row;" don't report a death after the tombstone has been erected, nor don't tell us of a birth after the child has been weaned.

—A lazy liver makes a lazy man Burdock Blood Bitters is the natural, never failing remedy for a lazy liver.

—The civic officers of Brookfield, Mo., have closed every gambling house in town and propose to keep them closed.

—At noon today Mr. Joseph Runkle of Bellefonte and Miss Edith Fink of Mahaffey will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents.

—The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius is to be sold as junk. What predictions there were that she would make the navies of the world look like 30 cents?

—Whitaker Wright's claim, that he would have been worth $50,000,000 if he had operated in this country is a tribute of which America has reason not to be proud.

—Perhaps the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania had better secure a few water rights before they are all gobbled up by private corporations and individuals.

—The fact that the Washington monument at the capital is wholly without inscription is a unique tribute to our first President. Yet the best lapidary inscriptions to our beloved dead leave the tenderest word unsaid.

—The school teachers of Pittsburg are about organizing a teachers union, the serving girls, cooks and house maids have also unionized, it seems as if every thing in their city had gone into trusts or unions except the preachers, and there is no telling how soon they will follow.

—The authorities at Lock Haven had two cases of small-pox to deal with. As soon as discovered they were removed to the emergency hospital outside the city, and guards stationed about the premises to prevent any one from entering or leaving the house for the next two weeks.

—The society young men of Jersey Shore are about to organize an anti-treating society, and the society girls are seconding the motion; but instead of seconding the original motion they ought to offer a new one demanding that to gain entrance into their society no drink at all shall be done by the young men.

—The Bellefonte Newspapers are unanimous in commending the course of Burgess Walker in his determination to stamp out disorderly conduct and drunkenness, upon our streets. The Burgess, will find himself sustained by our best citizens in the efforts he is making to correct the morals of Bellefonte.

—The Presbyterians of Buffalo Run held a sociable Friday night, at the home of Mrs. James Henderson. A large number of persons were present, ane the evening was one of pleasure. Fine refreshments were served, and of course an offering of some kind was expected, which amounted to a handsome sum.

—The Berwind-White company, of Windber, employing 4,000 miners, has posted a notice of an advance of wages to machine miners of 12 per. cent. Motermen increased from 24 to 30 cents an hour. Meek has returned from New York whither he had gone to visit and inspect some of the leading hospital of the metropolis, in order to introduce all the latest appliances and machinery into our home institution. —As the season of the Easter bonnet approaches—the bonnet which nine times out of ten is a revival of an old fashion—one is reminded of the remark of Mademoiselle Bertin, the milliner to Marie Antoinette, that "there is nothing new except what is forgotten." The truth of this is not confined to millinery, or to dressmaking, either.

—The State Board of Health is given control of a fund of $50,000 for the suppression of the smallpox epidemic in Pennsylvania, under the Arensburg bill, which was on Friday approved by the Governor. For several months her condition has been most precarious and her relatives here were not surprised to hear of her death. She was a young woman of splendid attributes and had many acquaintances here. Her body was brought home on Tuesday evening and interment was made last, Friday, afternoon in Lock Haven.

—Porter J. White carries over 16,000 feet of electrical wire, eight calciums and almost 20,000 square feet of scenery, all of this will be used in his big production of "Faust" in this city on Wednesday evening April 8th. This is the same company that played "Francesca Da Rimini" with great success a few weeks ago in Bellefonte.

—One disadvantage of a country of large territory is that it renders map-making expensive. England, with its small area, has been mapped on a scale of six inches to the mile, large enough to show every house The mapping cost nearly three hundred dollars a square mile, or about twenty times as much as this country expends for mapping its territory on a smaller scale. Yet the appropriations for this purpose are so large that one Senator has described the Geological Survey, which makes the inland maps, as "a sturdy beggar."
